Hate Crime Perpetrators: New Perspectives from Theory, Research and Practice, Volume II Jon Garland, Irene Zempi, Jo Smith, 2025-12-01 This two volume edited collection showcases the work of leading scholars researching hate crime perpetration. It explores current research into hate crime perpetration, develops theoretical perspectives and provides scholarly analysis of legal frameworks, policy responses and criminal justice practice. It seeks to understand how hate and intolerance manifest and are perpetrated. This Volume II focuses on developing responses to hate in online and offline settings while Volume I assesses offender profiles and motivation. Together they highlight links between different forms and arenas of hate crime offending and provides new perspectives on the nature of contemporary hate and intolerance, how it can be understood and how it might be effectively tackled. This two volume collection contends that difference in all its forms can be targeted by vitriol and abuse across and beyond the recognised five strands of hate crime law and policy in England and Wales: racist, religiously motivated, homophobic, transphobic and disablist, alongside broader behaviours that underpin intolerance such as scapegoating, stereotyping and microaggressions. These volumes bring together a range of perspectives to provide the readers, be they students, academics, policy makers, practitioners or the general public, with a comprehensive understanding of this topic. Conspiracy Theories in International Relations Katarzyna Gruszko, Tomasz

Gajewski, 2026-01-22 The book maps the impact of conspiracy theories at the international political level. It shows how a conspiracy theory travels from the sender through communication channels to the receiver, influencing the processes of construction and deconstruction of the interpretation of the surrounding reality. It therefore serves as an instrument of information warfare to create international advantage, generate profits or achieve ideological goals. The book presents academic reflection on a socially important problem: conspiracy theories, their patterns of dissemination and their impact on identity formation. This book is of key interest to scholars and students of conspiracy theories, global governance, global security, international studies, relations and social psychology. Investigating Online Heritage Crime Damien

Huffer, Evie Handby, 2025-12-01 From Reddit and YouTube to collector forums and live auctions, the avenues through which cultural heritage can be bought and sold are rapidly growing alongside new digital technologies. Considering anew the implications of this digital expansion for the online trafficking of cultural property and human remains, Investigating Online Heritage Crime conducts an exacting examination of these relatively under-researched sites of heritage crime. The chapters address how networks operate within and because of the interconnected social media and e-commerce landscape. Through doing so, this volume highlights where markets for online heritage are headed, especially given the ever-prevalent adoption of AI and LLM (Large Language Models) technology that is profoundly reshaping all aspects of online life, including licit and illicit commerce. The Law and Practice of Insolvent Assignments in the State of New York William S.
