Building a Curious School Bryan Goodwin,2020-03-19 Unleash the power of curiosity and the joy of learning Curiosity is hardwired in all of us but the longer students stay in school the less curious they become Why is that Building a Curious School uncovers the many subtle ways in which formal education seems to hinder our natural curiosity and reveals how rekindling a sense of wonder in schools can prime the pump for learning foster a culture of engagement grow better educational leaders and prepare students and staff to lead more fulfilling lives Grounded in research this engaging examination of curiosity shows educators how to intentionally cultivate inquisitiveness and wonder in teaching and learning It includes A plethora of activities ideas and tips to encourage curiosity Compelling examples of curiosity at work in schools businesses and communities Tools for supporting curiosity in ways that spark meaningful conversations and promote empathy equity and social emotional learning If you ve ever wondered anything really just out of curiosity then you ve got what it takes to lead your school to restored curiosity and your students to wellbeing and success This book lays out a vision as to the way schools can and should be approached to stimulate curiosity as a natural part of the teaching learning process Robert J Marzano Cofounder and CAO Marzano Resources Cofounder and Strategic Advisor Marzano Research A powerful must read for all educators who want learning not only to be lively but also impactful and meaningful for every student Lyn Sharratt Internship Supervisor Ontario Institute for Studies in Education University of Toronto Canada

Teaching, Teachers Learning N. Amanda Branscombe,Dixie Goswami,Jeffrey Mark Schwartz,1992 This book focuses on shared inquiry The research projects detailed in these chapters show how classroom dynamics change and more active learning takes place for both teacher and student when collaboration is involved The projects here range from elementary through graduate school in both rural and urban public and private settings Section One Students Teaching raises questions about what happens when students and teachers share authority in and out of the classroom empowering each other with the kind of authentic learning that can't be measured on standardized tests As students become more responsible for how as well as what they learn a bond of negotiation and trust is formed with the teacher Expertise is no longer the sole domain of the teacher but is shared by all as student voices are not only encouraged but respected The projects include an account of the emergent curriculum in an elementary school in Vermont students as teachers in a foreign language class in Greece students as co researchers on a telecommunications project in Pittsburgh community research in Kentucky student sustained discussion cross age tutoring and a follow up study ten years later of a former student co researcher Section Two Teachers Learning focuses on teachers who have been changed by listening to their students As in the first section the roles of student and teacher are not easily defined When teachers learn in these chapters contradictions and problems are examined not ignored This is teacher research extended beyond the lonely office of the solitary instructor The projects include a university school collaboration in urban Michigan portfolio assessment learning through talk in teacher preparation and cross visitation among teachers in the Philadelphia public schools Following each chapter are responses from such influential figures as Mary K Healy Nancie Atwell James Moffett and Shirley Brice Heath that tell stories raise questions push the argument further and carry on a conversation with the author that extends the dialogue to the reader as well
