International Anatomical Education Iain D. Keenan, Isabel Stabile, Asha Venkatesh, 2025-08-10 Anatomy is intrinsically a three dimensional and visual discipline Anatomical education is therefore primarily delivered using physical and digital three dimensional visual approaches to support student understanding of anatomy including human body donor specimens and technology enhanced learning resources The Trans European Pedagogic Anatomy Research Group TEPARG was founded in 2003 to promote scholarly research informed and evidence based approaches to the design and implementation of anatomical education TEPARG brings together enthusiastic anatomy teachers and pedagogic researchers from across Europe and beyond to share good practice and create new projects in support of anatomical education The work presented in this volume demonstrates careful consideration by the authors of several key areas within the current complex landscape of international anatomical education This volume is presented in two subthemes with the first section concerning broad considerations of modern anatomy curricula in England Scotland Wales and Austria and the second section involving discussion of pedagogic innovations for the delivery of anatomical education to learners and to the wider public in Italy Spain Australia and the United Kingdom The work presented in this volume will have implications for anatomical educators and pedagogic researchers in the anatomical sciences who are seeking to develop their own anatomy curricula and to implement effective evidence based and research informed visualization strategies and innovations into their teaching Thanks for Everything (Now Get Out) Joseph Margulies, 2021-10-19 When a distressed urban neighborhood gentrifies all the ratios change poor to rich Black and Brown to white unskilled to professional vulnerable to secure Vacant lots and toxic dumps become condos and parks Upscale restaurants open and pawn shops close But the low income residents who held on when the neighborhood was at its worst who worked so hard to make it better are gradually driven out For them the neighborhood hasn't been restored so much as destroyed Tracing the history of Olneyville a neighborhood in Providence Rhode Island that has traveled the long arc from urban decay to the cusp of gentrification Joseph Margulies asks the most important question facing cities today Can we restore distressed neighborhoods without setting the stage for their destruction Is failure the inevitable cost of success Based on years of interviews and on the ground observation Margulies argues that to save Olneyville and thousands of neighborhoods like it we need to empower low income residents by giving them ownership and control of neighborhood assets His model for a new form of neighborhood organization the neighborhood trust is already gaining traction nationwide and promises to give the poor what they have never had in this country the power to control their future Science and Pseudoscience in Social Work Practice Dr. Bruce A. Thyer, Monica Pignotti, 2015-05-15 Print CourseSmart Law Practice, 2004 Learning and Leading with Technology, 2005 Centering the Museum Elaine Heumann Gurian, 2021-09-14 Drawing on Elaine Heumann Gurian's fifty years of museum experience Centering the Museum calls on the profession to help visitors experience their shared humanity and find social uses for public buildings in order to make museums more central and useful to everyone in difficult times Following the same format as Civilizing the Museum this new volume includes material written especially for a re emergent time and relevant public lectures not included in the author s previous book Divided into six separate content clusters with over twenty different essays the book identifies many small subtle ways museums can become welcoming to more and to all Drawing on her extensive experience as a deputy director senior advisor to high profile government museums lecturer and teacher around the world the author provides recommendations for inclusive actions by intertwining sociological thinking with practical decision making strategies Writing reflectively Elaine also provides heritage students and professionals with insights that will help move their careers and organizations into more equitable yet successful terrain Centering the Museum will be an excellent companion volume to Civilizing the Museum and as such will be a useful support for emerging museum leaders It will be especially interesting to academics and students engaged in the study of cultural administration as well as museum and heritage practitioners working around the world
