Literature Peter Gendolla, Jörgen Schäfer, 2007 During recent years literary texts in electronic and networked media have been a focal point of literary scholarship using varying terminology. In this book the contributions of internationally renowned scholars and authors from Germany, USA, France, Finland, Spain and Switzerland review the ruptures and upheavals of literary communication within this context. The articles in the book focus on questions such as: In which literary projects can we discover a new quality of literariness? What are the terminological and methodological means to examine these literatures? How can we productively link the logics of the play of literary texts and their reception in the reading process? What is the relationship of literary writing and programming? With contributions by Jean Pierre Balpe, Susanne Berkenheger, Friedrich W. Block, Philippe Bootz, Laura Borràs, Castanyer, Markku Eskelinen, Frank Furtwängler, Peter Gendolla, Loss, Pequeño, Glazier, Fotis Jannidis, Thomas Kamphusmann, Mela, Kocher, Marie, Laure, Ryan, Jürgen Schäfer, Roberto Simanowski and Noah Wardrip Fruin.

The Brand Gap Marty Neumeier, 2003 THE BRAND GAP is the first book to present a unified theory of brand. Whereas most books on branding are weighted toward either a strategic or creative approach, this book shows how both ways of thinking can unite to produce a charismatic brand, a brand that customers feel is essential to their lives. In an entertaining two-hour read, you'll learn a new definition of brand, the five essential disciplines of brand building, how branding is changing the dynamics of competition, the three most powerful questions to ask about any brand, why collaboration is the key to brand building, how design determines a customer's experience, how to test brand concepts quickly and cheaply, the importance of managing brands from the inside. Also see THE BRAND GAP second edition, which includes a 220-term brand glossary and premium softcover binding. FROM THE BACK COVER: Not since McLuhan's THE MEDIUM IS THE MESSAGE has a book compressed so many ideas into so few pages. Using the visual language of the boardroom, Neumeier presents the first unified theory of branding, a set of five disciplines to help companies bridge the gap between brand strategy and brand execution. Those with a grasp of branding will be inspired by what they find here, and those who would like to understand it better will suddenly get it. This deceptively simple book offers everyone in the company access to the most powerful business tool since the spreadsheet. Finally a book that cuts to the heart of what brand is: all about connecting the rational and the emotional, the theoretical and the practical, the logical and the magical, to create a sustainable competitive advantage. Everyone in the company should read this book, not just the three people with brand in their titles. Susan Rockrise, Worldwide Creative Director, Intel. A pleasure to read, THE BRAND GAP consistently provides deep practical insights in a light, visual way. Discover the power of imagery and the role of research in building a heavy-duty brand without the heavy-duty reading. David Aaker, Author of Brand Leadership and Building Strong Brands. Neumeier stands out among brand-savvy professionals. His experience as a designer, writer, and strategist lends realism to his five disciplines of brand building. Anyone who needs a deeper understanding of the creation, management, and evolution of brands should grab this book with both hands and start
