Old World Encounters Study Guide:

Symbol, Pattern and Symmetry Michael Hann, 2013-11-21 Symbol Pattern and Symmetry The Cultural Significance of Structure investigates how pattern and symbol has functioned in visual arts exploring how connections and comparisons in geometrical pattern can be made across different cultures and how the significance of these designs has influenced craft throughout history The book features illustrative examples of symbol and pattern from a wide range of historical and cultural contexts from Byzantine Persian and Assyrian design to case studies of Japanese and Chinese patterns Looking at each culture s specific craft style Hann shows how the visual arts are underpinned with a strict geometric structure and argues that understanding these underlying structures enables us to classify and compare data from across cultures and historical periods Richly illustrated with both colour and black and white images and with clear original commentary the book enables students practitioners teachers and researchers to explore the historical and cultural significance of symbol and pattern in craft and design ultimately displaying how a geometrical dialogue in design can be established through history and culture story of the West is much bigger than this established paradigm leads us to believe So much of our shared history has been lost drowned out by the concept developed in the Victorian era of separate civilisations Moving from the Bronze Age to the Age of Exploration How the World Made the West reveals a new narrative one that traces the millennia of global encounters and exchange that built what is now called the West as societies met tangled and sometimes grew apart From the creation of the alphabet by Levantine workers in Egypt who in a foreign land were prompted to write things down in their own language for the first time to the arrival of Indian numbers in Europe via the Arab world Quinn makes the case that understanding societies in isolation is both out of date and wrong It is contact and connections rather than solitary civilisations that drive historical change It is not peoples that make history people do A work of great confidence empathy learning and imagination
