New Dynamics in East Asian Politics Zhiqun Zhu,2012 Comparative Welfare Capitalism in East Asia Mason M. S.

Kim,2015-10-22 The author aims to develop conceptual refining and theoretical reframing of the productivist welfare capitalism thesis in order to address a set of questions concerning whether and how productivist welfarism has experienced both continuity and change in East Asia Globalization, Development And Security In Asia (In 4 Volumes)

,2014-04-28 Asian countries are undergoing rapid political economic and social transformations meanwhile there is a growing demand for knowing more about Asia This Major Reference Set is designed to help general readers as well as specialists to have a good grasp of the latest developments in Asia in the key areas of economic growth trade energy environment foreign policy and security With 4 volumes this set covers all major dimensions of Asia s political economy Contributors include both scholars and practitioners who provide first hand description and analysis of fundamental issues in Asia Peace and political stability are of ultimate importance with Asia at the forefront of wealth creation in the global economy Volume 1 unpacks and examines the foreign policy strategies of key states and the role of regional institutions in responding to the security demands of an Asian century Volume 2 studies the strong economic integration through trade and cross border investment that has been essential to Asia The region s future prosperity depends on it being able to remain open and outward looking As Asia grows larger and richer more concerted efforts are required to surmount regional rivalry and to further strengthen the regional architecture of economic cooperation Volume 3 looks at the emerging economies thirst for energy that creates huge competition around which domestic regional and international political economy unfolds Climate change and aspiration for sustainable development further complicate the challenge Volume 4 offers a comprehensive coverage of subjects on environment and sustainable development in Asia with case studies of selected and representative countries that are at different stages of economic development and facing different environment related problems and challenges in the twenty first century This interdisciplinary set is a fine example of international cooperation with contributors hailing from different parts of Asia as well as North America and Europe It is a must have for anyone keen on understanding Asia s dynamic and changing scene The Evolution of Regionalism in Asia Heribert

Dieter,2007-12-10 By combing the analysis of the three dimensions of integration this book enables readers to gain a broad understanding of the theory and practice of integration processes in Asia The SAGE Handbook of Contemporary

China Weiping Wu,Mark Frazier,2018-07-09 An exploration of the transformations of contemporary China firmly grounded in both disciplinary and China specific contexts The Writers Directory ,2013 European and East Asian Regionalism

Jens-Uwe Wunderlich,2020-10-15 Embedded in the evolving comparative regionalism literature this book offers a systematic analysis of the factors positively and negatively influencing regional institution building The ruptures caused by the Eurozone crises the coronavirus pandemic and by Brexit have renewed the interest in the impact of crises and critical junctures on regionalism here defined as regional institution building Drawing from critical juncture research and historical comparative analysis this volume uses the cases of European and East Asian regional institution building to systematically analyse institutional transformations during specific historical turning points and critical juncture moments Wunderlich s research offers an in depth analysis of the interrelated drivers spoilers and dissolvers of regional institution building processes in Europe and East Asia and addresses key questions including Under what conditions does regionalism take hold What is influencing the initial institutional design choices What is the impact of historical experiences and well entrenched norms and ideas What are the roles of regional leaders How do external factors influence regional institution building What turns a crisis into a critical juncture and are such junctures threats or opportunities What accounts for variations in institutional responses to crisis events across different regional settings This book will be a valuable resource for scholars of regionalism region building regional governance and international relations of Europe and East Asia IEAS Bulletin ,1990 Political Economy of East Asia Linda Low,2004 This book aims to distil from both sets of developments before and after the Asian crisis of 1997 a generic business model for East Asia in the context of the new economy Globalisation information communication technology knowledge based economy deregulation and emerging new competition delineate and set the challenges for the new economy More rapid technological change in the new globalised economy means greater creative destruction and risk of premature obsolescence to companies and workers of capital job skills and earning power

Development and Security in Southeast Asia: Globalization David Brian Dewitt,Carolina G. Hernandez,2003 This third volume of three accepts that globalization is both the context within which Southeast Asian countries must function and is a process which governments and businesses have embraced The focus of this text is on how the phenomenon of globalization has affected individuals well being and the community security Security, Arms Control, and Conflict Reduction in East Asia and the Pacific ,1993-07-30 This is the most comprehensive bibliography to date on the vast English language literature covering the myriad aspects of peace and security issues in the East Asia Pacific region McClean contacted 150 key research institutions and publishers around the world for information about the most significant books articles dissertations and official documents on international and intra state security arms control conflict avoiding diplomacy and militarization in the area He has selectively annotated 12 645 cross referenced entries and organized them into 27 sub regional and country chapters including two particularly extensive chapters on Japan and China and two further chapters on relations between Australia New Zealand and the United States and on U S and Soviet policy The Nexus of Economics, Security, and International Relations in East Asia Avery Goldstein,Edward D. Mansfield,2012-08-29 While over the last 30 years the global economy s center of gravity has shifted to East Asia the region has remained surprisingly free of interstate military conflict Yet this era of peace and growth has been punctuated by periodic reminders of enduring security problems in the region from China s military modernization to unresolved territorial disputes to persistent tensions on the Korean peninsula This volume is one of the first to treat these issues of economics and security as interconnected rather than separate. Its authors, leading scholars from the U.S. and China, shed new light on this important nexus by applying insights from a rich variety of approaches to explore and explain the dynamics of a region whose importance for students of both international political economy and international security has grown dramatically. They show that both economic and security fundamentals matter if one is to understand the reasons for and evaluate the durability of East Asia's recent peace and prosperity. The Political Economy of Globalisation and Regionalisation Roy Wilkinson, 1999 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 2003 CSA
