Ian Rankin Erin E. MacDonald,2020-06-22 Ian Rankin is considered by many to be Scotland's greatest living crime fiction author. Most well known for his Inspector Rebus series which has earned critical acclaim as well as scores of fans worldwide. Rankin is a prolific author whose other works include spy thrillers, nonfiction books and articles, short stories, novels, graphic novels, audio recordings, television, film and plays. This companion is the first to provide a complete look at all of his writings. It includes alphabetized entries on Rankin's works, characters and themes, a biography, a chronology, maps of Rebus Edinburgh and an annotated bibliography. A champion of both Edinburgh and Scotland, Rankin continues to combine engaging entertainment with socio-political commentary, showing Edinburgh as a microcosm of Scotland and Scotland as a microcosm of the world. His writing investigates questions of Scottish identity, British history, masculinity and contemporary culture while providing mystery readers with complex, suspenseful plots, realistic character development and a unique mix of American hard-boiled and procedural styles with Scottish dialects and sensibilities.

Nationalism in China Maggie Ying Jiang, 2024-05-14 China has made nationalism central as the country seeks to achieve a rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. The new wave of consumer nationalism in China reached a fever pitch in recent years. This book will be the first book that systematically analyzes the different waves of consumer nationalism in China, the types of its nationalistic consumer actions and the critical impact of the new wave which has increased the possibility of a consumer base that could turn hostile at any moment. It argues that the outbursts of nationalist consumer outrage have become an increasing risk for businesses in China or businesses dealing with Chinese markets and that as China faces growing diplomatic challenges abroad, multinational companies need to enhance focus and strategic planning in communication operations when dealing with the world's second largest economy.

25 Years of the TRIPS Agreement Christopher Heath, Anselm Kamperman Sanders, 2021-12-17 When the TRIPS Agreement was concluded in 1994, many saw it as embodying a new gold standard of intellectual property protection that not only reformed the Paris and Berne Conventions but also made further IP agreements unnecessary. Although this optimistic vision has eroded, obligations to protect IP rights can now be found in trade agreements and can be enforced before domestic courts and investor state tribunals. The Agreement continues to pervade trends and developments in international law not only in IP but in trade law as well. This comprehensive commentary on the past, present and future of the Agreement focuses on its influence on key topics in IP as well as on enforcement and dispute resolution. The editors have assembled a group of renowned IP law practitioners and academics who, taking each area of IP law in turn, show the extent to which TRIPS provisions have survived, expanded or been supplanted by other bodies. Their analysis covers the different IP rights addressed in the TRIPS Agreement: copyrights, trademarks, geographical indications, patents, data protection and enforcement, both in historical perspective and in their development in the last 25 years. An additional three chapters cover most favoured nation obligations in regard of subsequent free trade agreements how societal interests alter the interpretation of TRIPS obligations the judicial role in the WTO panels and Appellate Body minimum standards and reduction of flexibilities in IP policy relationship of WTO TRIPS with other international agreements As intellectual property becomes more pervasive in society than ever before and as both technology related to the use of IP and the way protected works are consumed have changed beyond recognition over the past 25 years jurists academics and practitioners in IP and trade law will welcome this unique opportunity to test the true scope of national sovereignty in the interpretation of intellectual property rights    Schwann Spectrum ,1995    Farmer's Advocate and Home Journal ,1911    A Very French Christmas Guy de Maupassant,Jean-Philippe Blondel,Alphonse Daudet,Dominique Fabre,Anatole France,Irène Némirovsky,2017-10-10 Bringing together the best French Christmas stories of all time in an elegant and vibrant collection featuring classics by Guy de Maupassant and Alphonse Daudet plus stories by the esteemed twentieth century author Irene Nemirovsky and contemporary writers Dominique Fabre and Jean Philippe Blondel With a holiday spirit conveyed through sparkling Paris streets opulent feasts wandering orphans kindly monks homesick soldiers oysters crayfish ham bonbons flickering desire and more than a little wine encapsulating the holiday spirit and proving that the French have mastered Christmas
