How can a simple game be so complex? Never Have I Ever is a simple drinking game played with a group of people. In the game, the players raise a set of fingers and say a truth about their life experiences they have never experienced before. Such as never have ever I gone skiing, been to Hawaii, or been arrested. If another player has experienced this event, they place a finger down and take a sip of their drink. The game continues until one of the players places all their fingers down. This is the game. Two Westcliff University students played together. Christina Dennis and Carlos Mendez thought they were going to be playing a simple game. Instead, they found themselves admitting truths never spoken before dealing with complex emotions and doing the one thing they never ever thought possible fall for each other
