The First 40

Brodee Reed, 2019-07-19. Brodee Reed did the same thing every morning. After twenty minutes on the elliptical and drenched like a duck in a rain storm, he would shower, shave, and start making his rounds at the local bars where everyone knew my name. He finally had to ask myself, "Had he become an alcoholic?" Had he lost all control of being a responsible father, husband, and adult? How much longer could his family, conscience, and physical health survive his daily routine of drinking? In this memoir, he reveals what finally led him to enter a rehabilitation program, the steps of the detox process, and what he learned in classes about addiction, family, meditation, and ways to live a sober life. The First Forty is not all about drinking, drugs, rehab, and bad stuff; that the author did. It's also about his life as a father, soldier, husband, and life in the seventies, eighties, and nineties. It's about great times, bad times, traveling the world, coaching, and being a man that pushes forward.

Rethinking Chronic Absenteeism

Sarah Winchell Lenhoff, Jeremy Singer, 2025-03-05. A call for community-based approaches to reducing the barriers that prevent regular attendance in K-12 schools.

The Algorithmic Society Marc Schuilenburg, Rik Peeters, 2020-12-29. We live in an algorithmic society. Algorithms have become the main mediator through which power is enacted in our society. This book brings together three academic fields: Public Administration, Criminal Justice, and Urban Governance into a single conceptual framework and offers a broad cultural-political analysis addressing critical and ethical issues of algorithms. Governments are increasingly turning towards algorithms to predict criminality, deliver public services, allocate resources and calculate recidivism rates Mind boggling amounts of data regarding our daily actions are analysed to make decisions that manage control and nudge our behaviour in everyday life The contributions in this book offer a broad analysis of the mechanisms and social implications of algorithmic governance Reporting from the cutting edge of scientific research the result is illuminating and useful for understanding the relations between algorithms and power Topics covered include Algorithmic governmentality Transparency and accountability Fairness in criminal justice and predictive policing Principles of good digital administration Artificial Intelligence AI in the smart city This book is essential reading for students and scholars of Sociology Criminology Public Administration Political Sciences and Cultural Theory interested in the integration of algorithms into the governance of society
