A Scoping Study Into Perceptions of Phonological Pedagogy in Rural Ghana Christopher John Counihan, 2010-01-27 Ghana s education system is in a state of transition Since the introduction of the Free and Compulsory Universal Basic Education FCUBE initiative in 1995 the country has struggled to meet with the demands of providing accessible schooling for children at any level. Moreover, with the underdevelopment of early years and primary provision more children face slipping through the net. The battle to get children into schools and keep them there is proving to be problematic across the country. As a result, children are losing out on vital core learning experiences particularly literacy. English is the medium of instruction in Ghana and is taught in schools from the primary level. However, with a blend of English and mother tongue instruction, children are finding it significantly harder to grasp the basic skills. As a result, support from NGOs and teaching professionals have sought to find practical solutions through vis-à-vis and reciprocal partnerships.

The Northian Newsletter, 1975    The Creative Learning Toolkit Kerry Thalia, 2024-12-30 The Creative Learning Toolkit provides primary educators with inclusive activities that support learning through creative exploration. Each activity is crafted to ensure that children of all abilities can participate and thrive with step-by-step instructions accompanied by insightful tips on adapting activities to different learning needs. The book includes an array of hands-on projects thoughtfully curated to enhance communication, motor skills, and more from imaginative art projects that encourage self-expression to science experiments that ignite curiosity. Each chapter focusses on an area that will achieve creativity and provide progression through the curriculum with ideas, plans, differentiation, and extensions offering activities that provide a solid basis to lessons and can be used flexibly as starters, finishers, or full lessons. With a wealth of illustrations to bring each activity to life, this book is a valuable resource for primary school teachers, teaching assistants, and SENCOs looking to support and enrich the curriculum with creative activities for all.

The Rural Educator, 1999    Direct Instruction Reading Douglas Carnine, 2010 For courses in Direct Reading Instruction, Remedial Reading, and Reading for Special Education Students. Thoroughly integrating the latest guidelines from the National Reading Panel, this is a practical guide to teaching reading via the direct instruction reading approach, a proven program that is especially powerful with the most vulnerable learners those at risk because of poverty, disability, limited English. Rather than simply list method after method, these nationally known and respected authors provide a specific repertoire of carefully sequenced, highly prescriptive procedures for teaching decoding, comprehension, content reading, and study skills. For each skill to be taught, they recommend strategies, discuss optimal timing, offer examples, and explain how to correct errors. In addition, they thoughtfully examine the relationships among different reading skills.    Teaching Students in Inclusive Settings Dianne F. Bradley, Margaret E. King-Sears, Diane M. Tessier-Switlick, 1997 This book provides information for teachers to use when including students with disabilities in general education schools and classrooms. This book provides theory with a lot of practical how-to information, focuses on methods for students with mild, moderate, and severe disabilities at all grade levels, and contains examples that are based on real life applications of how educators from all disciplines have used these methods.
