Uber Driver

1 Uber drivers use their own cars to take people where they need to go. They 2 work for a company called Uber, which connects drivers and passengers
3 through an app. When someone wants a ride, they use the app to ask for a 4 car. The app finds a nearby Uber driver and sends them the request. If the 5 driver accepts, they go to the passenger's location, pick them up, and drive
6 them to their destination. When the ride is over, the app calculates the cost, 7 and the passenger pays through the app.
8 Uber drivers do not have fixed working hours. They can choose when they 9 want to work by turning on the app. Some drivers work full-time, while 10 others drive only a few hours a week. Drivers must meet certain 11 requirements, such as having a valid driver's license, passing a background
12 check, and using a car that meets Uber's rules.
13 Drivers can see the route to their passenger's destination using a map in the 14 app. The app helps them find the fastest way to get there. Sometimes, 15 traffic or roadblocks can make a trip take longer. Uber drivers must follow 16 the rules of the road, drive safely, and treat passengers with respect.
17 Passengers can rate drivers after the ride, and drivers can also rate 18 passengers. Uber has different types of rides. Some are cheaper, while 19 others cost more and use nicer cars. In some cities, Uber offers carpooling, 20 where passengers share a ride with others going in the same direction. This 21 makes the ride cheaper and helps reduce traffic.
22 Uber drivers must pay for their own gas, car repairs, and insurance. They 23 also give a part of their earnings to Uber as a fee for using the app. Even 24 though they work independently, they must follow Uber's rules to continue 25 driving for the company.
