By Malorie Blackman

Adapted by Sabrina Mahfouz

Directed by Esther Richardson

THE DINNER

3a. As a long table is moved downstage the TV's flicker into life.

Media bites show the domination of the Crosses in this society.

Minnie and Jude are watching the TV's in their respective houses Two TV's are on here?

Reporter on video:

REPORTER 1: Liberation Members found guilty for the car bomb outside the International Trade Centre last month have been issued the death sentence today. Home Secretary, Kamal Hadley, issued this statement earlier –

On stage:

MINERVA: Dad's on telly, Mum!

JASMINE enters, holding glass of wine, to watch:-

KAMAL (on video): Political terrorism which results in the death or injury of even just one Cross always has been and always will be a Capital crime. It is right that those found guilty suffer the death sentence –

3b. As Jude switches over to a different channel the image of Kamal becomes impressionistic on one screen and the lights dim on the Hadleys as another news story at the McGregors comes into focus?

JUDE (switching over): Blah blah blah!

REPORTER 2: Protests both for and against the Nought children due to start at Cross schools tomorrow, have continued outside Parliament tonight, with fears of violence between opposing sides-

MEGGIE: Give us a break for God's sake, even better, give us our own decent schools so we can stay well clear of yours!

3c. Dinner at Sephy's:

As we switch back to the Hadleys - Kamal's image comes back into sharp focus with the indecipherable sound of 'TV chat' continuing in the background (ie Kamal present on screen through dinner)

The women sit around the table with mobile phones

SEPHY: Minnie, can you pass the orange juice?

MINERVE: How many times do I have to tell you not to call me Minnie?

My name is Minerva, M. I. N. E. R. V. A.

SEPHY: Yes, Minnie.

Minerva kicks Sephy under the table.

Shell Scripting Recipes Chris Johnson, 2006-11-03 This book is geared towards any Unix user who doesn't want to spend time creating or testing shell scripts. Instead, Shell Scripting Recipes dissects and explains over 150 much-needed and practical real-world examples and then shows the reader how and when to appropriately use them. Because most scripts found in this book are POSIX Portable Operating System Interface compliant, they are supported by many of the major shell variants including Bash, ksh, and sh among others. File conversion, system administration, and resource monitoring are just a few of the topics covered in this highly practical shell scripting reference. Reading Postcolonial Literature Hayley G. Toth, 2025-03-10 An Open Access edition is available thanks to the kind sponsorship of the libraries participating in the Jisc Open Access Community Framework OpenUP initiative. Debates about reading in postcolonial studies rarely discuss non-professional readers except to secure the authority of professional reading practices. In Reading Postcolonial Literature, Hayley G. Toth places non-professional reading practices in dialogue with received academic wisdom to debunk common-sense assumptions about non-professional readers as Western or neocolonial consumers. Drawing on reading practices recorded in academic books, journal articles, and on online book-reviewing platforms like Amazon and Goodreads, Toth draws attention to important continuities between professional and non-professional practices of reading postcolonial literature. At the same time, she highlights that non-professionals often have little desire to emulate the practices of professional postcolonial critics. Precisely by not adopting the established protocols and methods of postcolonial studies, non-professional readers call attention to the limits of dominant approaches to reading in the discipline. Across four chapters, Toth examines the relationship between reading and identity during the Rushdie affair, the difference between reading and address, the challenges posed by difficult texts, and the legitimacy of non-understanding and the reception of popular texts primarily read by non-professional audiences. Reading Postcolonial Literature demonstrates that reception matters in any claims we make about the value of reading postcolonial literature and offers new ways forward for the practice, study, and teaching of reading in the discipline.
