Nowhere To Call Home:

Nowhere to Call Home: Volume Two Leah Denbok, Tem Denbok, 2018-08-28 This book continues where my first book left off with forty photographs and stories of people experiencing homelessness. It is a part of my ongoing mission begun with volume one to change the general public's perception of those experiencing homelessness. So often as I stated in my first book they are viewed as subhuman creatures or a lower order of being than human. Through my photographs and stories I am trying to humanize them to help the general public see that apart from the unfortunate circumstances in which these people find themselves they are no different than you and I. I am heartened that judging from the comments that my first book has received from people around the world my work seems to be having this effect. All royalties from this book will be given to Home Horizon Transitional Support Program.

Nowhere to Call Home Leah Denbok, 2017-11-13 I invite you to look into the eyes of the homeless they tell a story. Homelessness is a serious problem throughout North America even in Canada and the United States two of the richest countries in the world. We must stop this madness says Leah Denbok the teenage Canadian photographer who travelled with her dad for over two years to cities throughout North America photographing and interviewing the homeless. Leah was inspired by the story of her mother who at three years old was rescued from the streets of Calcutta by Saint Teresa formerly Mother Teresa. Nowhere to Call Home is a collection of gritty black and white photographs and the personal stories of individuals who live on the streets. The haunting beauty of the images will stay with you long after you turn the last page. All the profits from the sale of this book will go to the Salvation Army Barrie Bayside Mission Centre.

What Was it Like? Teaching History and Culture Through Young Adult Literature Linda J. Rice, 2006-07-27 This practical book is a great resource for teachers who want to engage their students with young adult literature. An array of active learning strategies place students close to the featured novel or memoir while meeting standards and addressing a broad range of critical thinking skills. Historical themes center on the Depression, Mexican American migrant farm workers, children during the Holocaust, the internment of the Japanese during WWII, the Japanese occupation of Korea, the U.S. Civil Rights Movement, the experience of U.S. soldiers and children affected by the Vietnam War.

A Mug Up with Elisabeth Melissa Hayes, Marilyn Westervelt, 2001-01-01 Anyone who has come under the spell of Elisabeth Ogilvie's novels is bound to wonder about this writer who for more than fifty years has crafted one memorable book after another historical fiction, mysteries, young adult stories, even a gothic novel. Most are set in Maine or the Scottish Highlands and for many readers it is Ogilvie's beautifully realized settings that make them pick up her novels again and again. Equally fascinating are her characters, vivid, individual, appealingly imperfect, deeply rooted in their families and home ground. Now at last we have a book about this prolific yet unassuming author who would rather live quietly on her Maine island than seek the limelight. A Mug Up with Elisabeth is the definitive resource on her life, her work, her characters and her settings, including Criehaven, the inspiration for Bennett's Island which is arguably one of the most evocative locales in American fiction On Bennett's Island many a tale is told and many a crisis resolved around the kitchen table while the islanders pause for a mug up of coffee In these pages readers can enjoy a mug up with Elisabeth Ogilvie herself I Am My Father's Daughter Rosemary Kariuki-Machua,2008 The Little Magazine,2004 Books Out Loud,2007 The Hepsworth millions, by Christian Lys Christian Lys,Percy James Brebner,1898 Nowhere to Call Home Kate Milner,2023 A gentle but important exploration of the growing problem of homelessness from the critically acclaimed and award winning creator of My Name is Not Refugee and It's a No Money Day A gentle but important exploration of the growing problem of homelessness from the critically acclaimed and award winning creator of My Name is Not Refugee and It's a No Money Day Mum can't afford the rent any more so she and her two young children have to move into a hostel while they wait their turn to get to the top of the housing list Their new home throws up lots of challenges they have to share a bathroom and the kitchen and there is lots of noise at night With no space to play or peace to do homework tempers can fray but as long as they have each other they'll find a way through Biennial Report of the Superintendent Nebraska.
