The Coronavirus Crisis and Challenges to Social Development Maria do Carmo dos Santos Gonçalves, Rebecca Gutwald, Tanja Kleibl, Ronald Lutz, Ndangwa Noyoo, Janestic Twikirize, 2022-01-03 This book is a novel contribution to academic discourses on the coronavirus COVID 19 crisis and how it has impacted societies globally It proffers an overview on the social development and political measures from both the Global North and Global South to prevent COVID 19 s spread It

illuminates major social political and economic challenges that already existed in different contexts and which are also currently being amplified by COVID 19. Curiously this global pandemic has opened spaces for different actors across the globe to begin to fundamentally question and challenge the hegemony of the Global North which sometimes is evident in social work. Linked to the foregoing and while reflecting beyond the pandemic and into the future the book proposes that social work must become more political at all levels and strive to transform societies global social development efforts and economic and health systems. This contributed volume of 38 chapters discusses and analyses ethical social sociological social work and social development issues that complement and enrich available literature in the socio political economics public health medical ethics and political science. It provides various case studies which should enable readers to gain insights into how countries have responded to the pandemic and learn how COVID 19 negatively impacted countries in different parts of the world. This book also provides a platform for the articulation of neglected and marginalized voices such as those of indigenous populations the poor or oppressed. The chapters are grouped according to three main themes as they relate to research on the COVID 19 pandemic and social work in Africa Asia Europe Latin America and North America. Analysis Social Issues and the COVID 19 Pandemic Strategies and Responses in Social Work Globally and Locally Outlook Looking Ahead Beyond the Pandemic. Intended to engage a global diverse and interdisciplinary audience. The Coronavirus Crisis and Challenges to Social Development is a timely and relevant resource for academics students and researchers in inter alia Social Work Philosophy Sociology Economics and Development Studies.

Plant Breeding Technology Zeba Khan, 2024-12-26. This book highlights the latest and most exciting technological tools for plant breeding that are becoming the staple of all crop improvement programs. Using case studies and an evidence based approach to examine the current status of each technique the book discusses the challenges so far uncovered and future trends. The book presents a systematic guide to various genomics approaches deployed for trait discovery and improvement in crop species. The chapters comprehensively cover each application its advantages and disadvantages and its potential for improvement supported by illustrative examples.
