nuclear weapons is consistent with national policy and strategic guidance Planning for the use of nuclear weapons is based upon knowledge of enemy force strength and disposition the number yield s and types of nuclear weapons available and the status and disposition of friendly forces at the time these weapons are to be employed Employment planning considers the characteristics and limitations of the nuclear forces available and seeks to optimize both the survivability and combat effectiveness of these forces To provide the desired capabilities nuclear forces must be diverse flexible effective survivable enduring and responsive If no one weapons system possesses all of the desired characteristics a variety of systems may be necessary Strategic stability and centralized control as well as command control communications computers and intelligence C4I are required enablers in nuclear force planning and employment Issues in Peace and Conflict Studies CQ Researcher,2010-10-12 Key Features Washington's New Cold War John Bellamy Foster,John Ross,Deborah Veneziale,2022-12-13 Argues the forces which originally drove us into the Cold War never went anywhere and the stakes are higher than ever As the American people delude themselves once more into thinking of the United States as a liberating force for peace in the world Waging a New Cold War invites us instead to think for ourselves Behind the scenes the plans to wage war have been laid either by proxy as in Ukraine or directly against the U S s old twentieth century foes Waging a New Cold War A Socialist Perspective makes a strong case that as the official story is laid out by government propagandists and as the mainstream media provides cover the aim of this latest set of American military escapades remains the same as ever Maintenance of U S hegemony in the global financial system Foregrounded with an introduction by Vijay Prashad this cogent collaboration puts forth three essays that illustrate clearly that while the Cold War against the Soviet Union ended the cold war against the enemies of the United States did not Furthermore its authors lay out evidence that the U S establishment has been willing to risk nuclear winter in other words mutual annihilation to hold onto economic primacy And they show that while Russia and China can each be criticized justifiably for their violations of human life and dignity neither on its own threatens the eruption of a Third World War and the end of the human race as we know it Just in time we have in our hands an intelligent text that strengthens our struggle against the cynical machinations of the American military behemoth and its propaganda machine Deterrence Anastasia Filippidou,2020-01-16 Through the examination of different themes and subjects the book provides an in depth analysis of the concept of deterrence and its utility in dealing effectively with current threats Although the concept of deterrence precedes the Cold War in modern times and in its traditional form deterrence is seen as the product of the Cold War which transformed narrow deterrence approaches into widespread orthodoxy Increasingly however emerging threats and challenges call into question the traditional concept of deterrence There are many elements that challenge the concept of deterrence and its effectiveness For instance it is not just that the concept can be ambiguous and broad but also there have to be a number of conditions for it to be successfully implemented This collection contributes to a growing field of research in a relatively under studied area of interrogating the concept of deterrence itself through a multi disciplinary approach Through the use of primary and secondary sources as well as interviews this book covers a wide range of disciplinary approaches on deterrence and the contributors cover a broad array of subjects The research assembled here focuses on deterring extremism conflict resolution and diplomacy investigating technological developments effects of globalisation social movements economics the relationship of resilience to effective deterrence and the associated complexity of contemporary interdependencies to create a contextualised concept of modern deterrence Social science and historical methodologies are utilized to gain a comprehensive cross section of analysis that will reveal the strengths and weaknesses of the use of deterrence as a national security strategy as well as highlighting the various types of power available for use by the state to create multi faceted deterrence in order to deal effectively and efficiently with complex emerging challenges
