Pakistan's Enduring Challenges C. Christine Fair, Sarah J. Watson, 2015-02-02 From the start of the U S war in Afghanistan in 2001 to the withdrawal of U S troops in 2014 Pakistan s military cooperation was critical to the United States Yet Pakistani politics remain a source of anxiety for American policymakers Despite some progress toward democratic consolidation over the last ten years Pakistan s military still asserts power over the country s elected government Pakistan s western regions remain largely ungoverned and home to the last remnants of al Qaeda s original leadership as well as multiple militant groups that have declared war on the Pakistani state The country s economy is in shambles and continuing tensions with India endanger efforts to bring a durable peace to a region haunted by the distant threat of nuclear war Pakistan s Enduring Challenges surveys the political and economic landscape of Pakistan in the wake of U S military withdrawal Experts in the domestic and international affairs of the region consider the country s prospects from a variety of angles including security issues and nuclear posture relations with Afghanistan India and the United States Pakistan s Islamist movements and the CIA s use of drone warfare in Pakistan s tribal areas This timely volume offers a concise accessible and expert guide to the currents that will shape the country s future Contributors Christopher Clary C Christine Fair Daveed Gartenstein Ross Karl Kaltenthaler Feisal Khan William J Miller Aparna Pande Paul Staniland Stephen Tankel Tara Vassefi Sarah J Watson Joshua T White Huma Yusef Pakistan at Seventy-Five Andrea Fleschenberg, Sarah Holz, Arslan Waheed, 2023-04-01 Pakistan at Seventy Five investigates the countrys multi layered issues in the context of a post colonial polity marked by diversity heterogeneity stratification and volatility This wide ranging discourse engages with diverse formal and informal actors as markers of identity historical events and social conditions as well as global geo political and neo colonial centreperiphery relations that shape narratives about the nation and the constructions of a sense of belonging The editors and contributors utilise multi faceted and multi layered approaches focusing on 1 identities and questions of diversity and pluralism 2 horizontal and vertical technologies and geographies of power related to questions of trust legitimacy participation and governance and 3 the distribution deprivation and vulnerability of sociocultural political and human resources Studying Pakistan has been subject to different approaches including decolonial indigenous and feminist perspectives This volume draws out alternative epistemological and methodological viewpoints the insideroutsider conundrum centreperiphery asymmetries hegemonic discourses and practices within Pakistans national international academy The chapter contributions are the outcome of a unique interdisciplinary research cooperation at Quaid i Azam University focussing on early career researchers Presenting a multiplicity of voices and trajectories Pakistan at Seventy Five provides new input to existing debates and directions for future scholarly endeavour Contributors Aftab Nasir Andrea Fleschenberg Arslan Waheed Salman Rafi Sheikh Sanaa Alimia Sarah Holz Sohaib Bodla Wajeeha Tahir Pakistan's ISI Julian Richards, 2024-09-02 An introduction to Pakistan s ISI which has been both an essential ally and problematic partner of the United States Forged during the tumultuous aftermath of Partition in 1947 the Inter Services Intelligence Directorate ISI has grown to become the preeminent intelligence service in Pakistan Its capabilities are comprehensive its remit covers both foreign and domestic intelligence and it is one of the most feared and respected agencies of the Global South Pakistan s ISI provides an up to date and detailed introduction to the ISI and its historical evolution The narrative is rooted in a deep and wide ranging contextualization of the state of Pakistan and its security environment The story is one of an agency that grew from humble beginnings into an extremely capable and robust force at the heart of power in the state The ISI utilizes broad human intelligence networks and employs covert action and support for militants particularly in its rivalry with India As a crucial intelligence partner for the West during the Cold War and into the contemporary era the ISI has been both an essential ally and problematic partner The shadow of this agency continues to loom over Pakistan s democratic institutions This book will appeal to students scholars and general readers interested in intelligence and the politics and history of South Asia

Shifting Power in Asia-Pacific? Enrico Fels, 2016-11-03 This book investigates whether a power shift has taken place in the Asia Pacific region since the end of the Cold War By systematically examining the development of power dynamics in Asia Pacific it challenges the notion that a wealthier and militarily more powerful China is automatically turning the regional tides in its favour With a special emphasis on Sino US competition the book explores the alleged linkage between the regional distribution of relevant material and immaterial capabilities national power and the much cited regional power shift The book presents a novel concept for measuring power in international relations by outlining a composite index on aggregated power CIAP that includes 55 variables for 44 regional countries and covers a period of twenty years Moreover it develops a middle power theory that outlines the significance of middle powers in times of major power shifts By addressing political military and economic cooperation via a structured focused comparison and by applying a comparative historical analysis the book analyses in depth the bilateral relations of six regional middle powers to Washington and Beijing

Threats to External and Internal Security of Pakistan In the Age of Globalization Zain Ul Abiden Malik, 2024-09-11 Diploma Thesis from the year 2024 in the subject Politics Topic International relations grade A Jamia Hamdard University School of History and Civilization Shaanxi Normal University Xi an Shaanxi China course International Relations language English abstract We live in an era of globalization where the question of security has emerged in a new form and character In this dissertation an attempt has been made to assess the current external as well as internal security threats to Pakistan and to investigate feasible remedial measures to enhance the national structure on domestic fronts As evident from the title this dissertation revolves around the internal and external security threats to Pakistan in the light of globalization Various external and internal security threats to Pakistan weaknesses of our national response and viable countermeasures are proposed in this dissertation This topic is one of Pakistan s most critical burning issues and is well recognized nationally and internationally as it evaluates the characteristics of the social order in Pakistan from several perspectives to find out the causes of domestic unrest and stresses the primary factors contributing in the peace of our society The importance of this research study further increases as the articles and study papers available on this topic are still in want of more input to chalk out viable solutions of the problems counter actions In this dissertation an active attempt has been made to assess the flaws of the security structure of Pakistan in order to propose practical countermeasures In order to achieve progress and prosperity all Pakistan need is sincerity cooperation and unity The origin of the domestic security challenges of a country can be traced from the internal and external quarters India and Afghanistan the two immediate neighbors pose a conventional or external threat to the stability of Pakistan Furthermore global powers like United States and Russia also threaten the stability of Pakistan due to their changing interests in the global order setting On the other hand internal threats to Pakistan are due to the domestic political ethnic sectarian extremism and Jihadi culture prevalent in the country It is often carried out by external activities According to the official nationalism of Pakistan the country was created on the basis of the two nation theory which clearly states that the Indian Muslims are a separate and distinct community for the Hindu nation

The Intelligence War in Afghanistan Musa Khan,2019-05-01 Globalisation continues to challenge our world at unprecedented speed Technological innovations changing geographical developments regional rivalries and destruction of national critical infrastructures in several Muslim states due to the US so called war on terrorism all transformed the structures and hierarchies of societies The idea of development of a nation that sounds on tripods that are food shelter and security failed The Edward Snowden leaks challenged policy makers and the public understanding and perspectives on the role of security intelligence in liberal democratic states The persisting imbalance of power in the United States its institutional turmoil and intelligence war and the noticeably tilting power have made the country feel vulnerable and prodded it into military ventures The calibration of Western allies around Whitehouse as the sole centre of globalization has only brought instability destruction and loss of human lives
