This is the autobiography of a little boy of mixed racial background He was born in 1938 in rural Georgia the child of sharecroppers in abject poverty The story takes the reader inside the thoughts of this boy and allows them to view his feelings and actions as he becomes a man The little boy experiences the American process of character genocide as practiced by benevolent adults He refuses to accept the boundaries the subhuman treatment and his stated inferiority in a racist society His inner strength and genetics enable him to obtain many of his set goals The boy finds that all things come at a price and he comes to a conclusion Although he is he views himself not as a Caucasian not as a Native American or an African American but as a fortunate and gifted human being He breaks 15 000 years of Native American tradition and shares his experiences with the reader Just because the white man says it That don t make it so Don t explain yourself to the whites because they will never understand you anyway You come to feel and understand the little boy s curiosity about adult behavior and his determination to persevere and survive at a high personal cost as the rite of passage takes him through his childhood He learns the lessons of life that good as well as bad people come in all colors All people must be judged as individuals and on personal merit The reader becomes aware of the acuteness of his pain and the unfairness of life as the boy reaches for the American dream

Top Cats Tom Jones,2020-05-15 Top Cats Stockton California experienced a high voltage jolt of enthusiasm during the 1960s when a young basketball coach named Dick Edwards brought a city together Hired by the University of the Pacific to coach its team Edwards had an ability to go outside the campus gates and capture the support of the city of Stockton and the outlying community He built a rabid fan base that became honorary Pacific alumni and they all turned an old opera house in downtown Stockton into a capitol of basketball The enthusiasm of the city helped Edwards develop a nationally ranked program that the University of the Pacific the city of Stockton the county of San Joaquin and the core of California s great Central Valley would grow to give unconditional support and interest Read how a fiery coach and a small group of dedicated assistants used a hardscrabble approach with a bunch of driven athletes to make Stockton and the University of the Pacific shine
