in a range of fields as well as professionals interested in industry innovations      Spotification of Popular Culture in the Field of Popular Communication Patrick Burkart, 2020-09-10 This edited collection considers various meanings of the Spotification of music and other media Specifically it replies to the editor s call to address the changes in media cultures and industries accompanying the transition to streaming media and media services Streaming media services have become part of daily life all over the world with Spotify in particular inheriting and reconfiguring characteristics of older ways of publishing distributing and consuming media The contributors look to the broader community of music media and cultural researchers to spell out some of the implications of the Spotification of music and popular culture These include changes in personal media consumption and production educational processes and the work of media industries Interdisciplinary scholarship on commercial digital distribution is needed more than ever to illuminate the qualitative changes to production distribution and consumption accompanying streaming music and television This book represents the latest research and theory on the conversion of mass markets for recorded music to streaming services      Networked Music Cultures Raphaël Nowak, Andrew Whelan, 2016-09-16 This collection presents a range of essays on contemporary music distribution and consumption patterns and practices The contributors to the collection use a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches discussing the consequences and effects of the digital distribution of music as it is manifested in specific cultural contexts The widespread circulation of music in digital form has far reaching consequences not least for how we understand the practices of sourcing and consuming music the political economy of the music industries and the relationships between format and aesthetics Through close empirical engagement with a variety of contexts and analytical frames the contributors to this collection demonstrate that the changes associated with networked music are always situationally specific sometimes contentious and often unexpected in their implications With chapters covering topics such as the business models of streaming audio policy and professional discourses around the changing digital music market the creative affordances of format and circulation and local practices of accessing and engaging with music in a range of distinct cultural contexts the book presents an overview of the themes topics and approaches found in current social and cultural research on the relations between music and digital technology      Is Iggy Azalea's Use of African-American English Cultural Appropriation? Attitudes towards her "Crossing" on Social Media , 2022-08-09 Seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 1.7 University of Münster language English abstract Iggy Azalea a white Australian hip hop artist uses African American Vernacular English when rapping Whether this act of crossing is cultural appropriation was debated on social media and in the news The question this paper aims to answer is if the wider audience on YouTube has a negative attitude towards Azalea s crossing Considering the extensive media coverage of which a substantial part was critical of Azalea s language use during performance the hypothesis is that the majority of the YouTube audience is negative towards this issue But before the data can be analysed there is essential information that requires to be provided This information will be given in the next part and it includes Iggy Azalea's biographical background as well as relevant terms and concepts namely African American English the hip hop nation and its language and crossing Moreover the study by Eberhardt and Freeman shall be presented in more detail Before moving on to the empirical part of this paper where comments below the music videos Work and Fancy are analysed there shall be a short excursion on language attitudes and how to research them Then having presented and analysed the results of the study the findings shall be discussed until finally some concluding remarks are made

Competing with Disruptive Business Models in Traditional Industries. Conceptualisation of a Strategic Framework Nils Berkemeyer, 2016-05-06 Master's Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance grade 1.0 Cass Business School language English abstract An increasing number of journalistic articles and academic literature deal with the struggle of established companies to fend off the attacks by industry newcomers such as Airbnb Spotify Netflix Google and many others These companies enter traditional industries with innovative business models and compete in a manner which makes it challenging for incumbent firms to understand their novel competition and respond effectively This study introduces a typology of three stages of industry disruption that classify the newcomer's developmental stage and describe the incumbent's competitive position in terms of competition intensity and remaining time to respond It is demonstrated how incumbents may conduct their strategic reasoning along these stages to arrive at a strategic goal and evaluate possible counter measures

Revolutionizing EFL Learning. Integrating Podcasts to Enhance Communicative, Intercultural, and

Media Literacy Skills Jessica Büscher,2024-07-22 Master s Thesis from the year 2022 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Pedagogy Literature Studies grade 1 0 University of Paderborn language English abstract This paper explores how podcasts can revolutionize learning in the EFL English as a foreign language classroom Not only are podcasts easily accessible and transcend knowledge barriers but they also foster close knit communities and offer a variety of genres and formats Although increasingly popular with young adults their potential often remains untapped in schools This study aims to show how teachers can use podcasts effectively in the classroom to promote communicative intercultural and media literacy skills With concrete application examples and creative teaching concepts we want to give teachers the tools to integrate podcasts profitably into EFL lessons and thus make learning more exciting and interactive The Deal ,2010

Bloomberg Businessweek ,2010-04 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,2013 Show me your playlist and I tell you who you are Kathrin Rochow,2012-11-28 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2010 in the subject Psychology Social Psychology grade 1 0 Uppsala University language English abstract In the age of social networking and music streaming playlists are a common tool for organizing sharing or exchanging music in the digital realm Most research however emphasizes mainly political legal and ethical constraints of music sharing practices yet neglects their social impact Thus this paper investigates the social psychological foundation of the playlist and analyses its functionality in establishing social relations and communication Following the theories of Cooley Mead Simmel and Solomon I conducted and analysed interviews with young Swedish men and women in which they talked about their experiences and attitudes towards playlists Moreover all participants compiled their own personal playlist based on certain personality traits which were aimed to be recognized by the others during the focus group discussion The analysis of the data yields the following conclusions The playlist is a social object facilitating new forms of communication The social nature of the playlist is based on the transformation from objective into subjective culture By internalizing new technologies such as the playlist objects gain social value thus mere musical content becomes a social form It is through sharing and exchanging musical compilations that the playlist as a social form serves as a vehicle or medium facilitating new forms of sociation and communication The communicative function of the playlist is due to its construction through emotions as uniquely subjective judgements based on the I as an emotional self feeling Thus musical compilations take part in the self construction process and can serve as a tool for the symbolic expression of the self Moreover the analysis points out that there are differences in how well certain parts of the self can be communicated by a playlist Emotional expressions of the self are translated into particular universal music patterns most successfully Furthermore the analysis shows that some people like to browse through the playlists of others and judge them thereupon which results in some type of musical voyeurism termed playlistism In conclusion I argue that the musical playlist is both socially implicated and socially implicating Vanity Fair ,2016 A New Approach for Developing Business Model Innovation Michael Lang,Annika Koerdt,2019-12-30 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2019 in the subject Business economics Company formation Business Plans grade 1 0 Mendel University Business and Economics language English abstract Business model innovation has received increasing interest within science and managerial practice over the last years Accordingly scientists have developed various approaches on business model innovation However it has been recognized that established companies face particular challenges successfully innovating their business model Current academic research considers the company s established dominant logic to be the main barrier hindering the innovation process In contrast to that none of current theories on business model innovation covers the overcoming of the dominant logic in their approaches The research gap leads to the question how does a new approach for business model innovation look like which support today s companies in their current and future challenges To answer this question Chapter 1 highlights the need for action Based on that Chapter 2 deals with the theory of business model innovation and dominant logic Chapter 4 highlights the research gap reflecting on the role of dominant logic within business model innovation Chapter 5 aims at developing the according strategy which acknowledges and effectively addresses the innovation barrier of the dominant logic Finally the last Chapter summarizes the findings how the new academic approaches on business model innovation is characterized and discuss the validation of the new theory
