Bravery or Bravado? The Protection of News Providers in Armed Conflict Nina Burri, 2015-05-12 During the last decade the image of war correspondents in the news has shifted dramatically Reports are no longer full of cheerleading stories of embedded journalists Instead stories of war reporters being attacked kidnapped or injured prevail Sadly the former heroic witnesses to war have become victims of their own story In this book Nina Burri provides the first comprehensive analysis on how international law protects professional and citizen journalists photographers cameramen and their support staff during times of war Using examples from recent armed conflicts in Iraq Libya Gaza and Syria Burri explores the means methods and risks of contemporary war coverage and examines the protection of news providers by international humanitarian law international criminal law and human rights law

Cheap Speech Richard L. Hasen, 2022-03-08 An informed and practical road map for controlling disinformation embracing free speech saving American elections and protecting democracy A fresh persuasive and deeply disturbing overview of the baleful and dangerous impact on the nation of widely disseminated false speech on social media Richard Hasen the country's leading expert about election law has written this book with flair and clarity Floyd Abrams author of The Soul of the First Amendment What can be done consistent with the First Amendment to ensure that American voters can make informed election decisions and hold free elections amid a flood of virally spread disinformation and the collapse of local news reporting How should American society counter the actions of people like former President Donald J Trump who used social media to convince millions of his followers to doubt the integrity of U S elections and helped foment a violent insurrection What can we do to minimize disinformation campaigns aimed at suppressing voter turnout With piercing insight into the current debates over free speech censorship and Big Tech's responsibilities Richard L Hasen proposes legal and social measures to restore Americans access to reliable information on which democracy depends In an era when quack COVID treatments and bizarre QAnon theories have entered mainstream this book explains how to assure both freedom of ideas and a commitment to truth

EU Competition Law, Data Protection and Online Platforms: Data as Essential Facility Inge Graef, 2016-10-17 All are agreed that the digital economy contributes to a dynamic evolution of markets and competition Nonetheless concerns are increasingly raised about the market dominance of a few key players Because these companies hold the power to drive rivals out of business regulators have begun to seek scope for competition enforcement in cases where companies claim that withholding data is needed to satisfy customers and cut costs This book is the first focus on how competition law enforcement tools can be applied to refusals of dominant firms to give access data on online platforms such as search engines social networks and e commerce platforms commonly referred to as the gatekeepers of the Internet The question arises whether the denial of a dominant firm to grant competitors access to its data could constitute a refusal to deal and lead to competition law liability under the so called essential facilities doctrine according to which firms need access to shared knowledge in order to be able to compete A possible duty to share data with rivals also brings to the forefront the interaction of competition law with data protection legislation considering that the required information may include personal data of individuals Building on the refusal to deal concept and using a multidisciplinary approach the analysis covers such issues and topics as the following data portability interoperability data as a competitive advantage or entry barrier in digital markets market definition and dominance with respect to data disruptive versus sustaining innovation role of intellectual property regimes economic trade off in essential facilities cases relationship of competition enforcement with data protection law and data related competition concerns in merger cases The author draws on a wealth of relevant material including EU and US decision making practice case law and policy documents as well as economic and empirical literature on the link between competition and innovation The book concludes with a proposed framework for the application of the essential facilities doctrine to potential forms of abuse of dominance relating to data In addition it makes suggestions as to how data protection interests can be integrated into competition policy An invaluable contribution to ongoing academic and policy discussions about how data related competition concerns should be addressed under competition law the analysis clearly demonstrates how existing competition tools for market definition and assessment of dominance can be applied to online platforms It will be of immeasurable value to the many jurists business persons and academics concerned with this very timely subject
