Jet, 1985-06-24 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news Emmy Award Winning Nighttime Television Shows, 1948-2004 Wesley Hyatt, 2015-09-11 Since the early days of television well before most households had a set the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences has been handing out honors for the industry's best efforts. Now fans can read about their favorites and perhaps rediscover some forgotten pleasures in this reference to prime time and nighttime Emmy winners. Beginning with the heated charade contest known as Pantomime Quiz which won Most Popular Program of 1948 in the first Emmy Awards ceremony held in 1949 each of more than 100 winning shows gets star treatment with an entry that includes the year of award or awards air times hosts guests casts and a full discussion of the show's history and run. Many of the entries include original interviews with cast or crew members. With such rich information each show's entry constitutes a chapter in the history of television through the story of the show and the people who made it happen. The best of variety drama game shows comedies adventures and many more categories are featured. An appendix offers interesting facts and figures and ranks shows according to such statistics as longest run longest delay from debut to win and most Emmys won. Engaging Spaces Erik Kristiansen, Olav Harsløf, 2015-11-23 All performances whether music theater visual arts or even street protests or games have this in common they happen somewhere within a space. This anthology explores the complicated relationship between performance and the space in which it is hosted. Examining both well known spaces such as concert halls or stages as well as unconventional ones such as the street the contributors investigate different conceptions of space how space is experienced how different spaces are unique from one another and ultimately the ways space enables the performing arts to deeply engage audiences. Grand Prize Winner! Tracy Sinclair, 1993-10 Jet, 1985 Orange Coast Magazine, 2004-09 Orange Coast Magazine is the oldest continuously published lifestyle magazine in the region bringing together Orange County's most affluent coastal communities through smart fun and timely editorial content as well as compelling photographs and design.
