Well-Being and Education: Current Indications and Emerging Perspectives Eirini Karakasidou, George Tsitsas, Michael Galanakis, 2024-10-16 School apart from being a place of education and transmission of new knowledge should also be a place of personal development and enhancement of students well being and mental resilience while protecting mental health and preventing teacher burnout The current covid 19 pandemic has made the need for psychological support for students and teachers more urgent than ever The science of positive psychology has offered many tools and methods that are particularly effective in the school environment and in educational contexts in general New tools methods and practices are needed to enhance the well being and psychological resilience of students teachers and parents in a time of challenges such as the current pandemic and inflation that cause stress uncertainty and an increase in psychopathology

Health Promotion in the Universities and Other Educational Settings Miguel Corbí, Antoni Aguilo, Carmen Gallardo Pino, Mario Del Líbano, Carlos Emanuel Rodriguez-Diaz, Hiram V. Arroyo Acevedo, 2025-09-17 The promotion of health in universities is of great importance as it allows for the encouragement of healthy lifestyles and the prevention of diseases among students teaching staff and administrative personnel The university is a conducive environment for the promotion of healthy habits since firstly it is usually the moment when the students make decisions under their responsibility and secondly it is a place where academic sports and social activities take place so it is also an ideal moment to promote changes that can be transferred to society and the rest of the individual's life Health promotion in universities can cover several areas such as healthy eating physical exercise prevention of addictions emotional and social mental health among others It can also involve the entire university community from students to administrative and teaching staff In the case of students it is essential as it is a period of change and habit formation and the fact that they will be the future decision makers of society

The Social-Ecological Context of Health Literacy Karolina Kósa, Kevin

Dadaczynski, Susie Sykes, Éva Bíró, 2022-06-21      Routledge Handbook of Coaching Children in Sport Martin Toms, Ruth Jeanes, 2022-12-23 The Routledge Handbook of Coaching Children in Sport provides a comprehensive and extensive range of critical reflections of key areas impacting on children's sport and coaching up to the age of 16. With coaching-related chapters authored by academics across various disciplines including nutrition, psychology, pedagogy, medicine, youth development, and sociology, the text provides detailed reviews of the existing state of research and consideration of the implications of these particular factors upon parents, coaches, administrators, and clearly the young people themselves, as well as recommendations for future research. This new volume provides in-depth investigation to key topics of coaching, such as Learning and Child Development, Protecting Young Athletes, Talent Identification and Development, and Inclusive Coaching, and finally introduces a broad array of contextual considerations for coaches from considering professional learning through to coaching in particular contexts. This book is more than simply an academic text and it offers insights that will further inform practice in children's sport coaching. The handbook is relevant for students, UG/PG researchers, academics, parents, coaches, and administrators, as well as those interested in children's sport coaching and the related topics therein.

Martin Toms PhD is a senior lecturer/associate professor in the School of Sport, Exercise and Rehabilitation Sciences at the University of Birmingham, UK. A former professional sports coach with an MPhil and PhD exploring the sociological issues of young people in junior sport, Martin has been heavily involved in juniors' sport all of his adult life. He has published widely and presented extensively around the world on youth sport, including working on international projects and for NBGs, Federations, and National Governmental organisations. He has gained European and SCUK funding for youth and coaching-related projects, as well as being involved in international consultancy. He is a co-editor of the European Journal for Sport and Society as well as the current Editor in Chief of the International Journal of Golf Science.

Ruth Jeanes PhD is an associate professor in the Faculty of Education at Monash University, Australia. Ruth's research examines inclusion and exclusion within youth sport, particularly examining how sport can be used to achieve broader social policy objectives targeted at young people. Within this, she is particularly interested in the role of coaches in facilitating broader social outcomes for young people. Ruth has published extensively in these areas with over 100 publications across journal articles, book chapters, and books. She is widely cited and has been successful in securing extensive funding for her research, including two highly competitive Australian Research Council grants.

The Physiotherapy Review, 1942      Self-Help in Mental Health T. Mark Harwood, Luciano L'Abate, 2009-11-24 Self-help is big business but alas not a scientific business. The estimated 10 billion that is spent each year on self-help in the United States is rarely guided by research or monitored by mental health professionals. Instead, marketing and metaphysics triumph. The more outrageous the miraculous cure and the revolutionary secret, the better the sales. Of the 3,000 plus self-help books published each year, only a dozen contain controlled research documenting their effectiveness as stand-alone self-help. Of the 20,000 plus psychological and relationship web sites available on the Internet only a couple hundred meet professional standards for accuracy and balance Most in fact sell a commercial product Pity the layperson or for that matter the practitioner trying to navigate the self help morass We are bombarded with thousands of potential resources and contradictory advice Should we seek wisdom in a self help book an online site a 12 step group an engaging autobiography a treatment manual an inspiring movie or distance writing Should we just do it or just say no Work toward change or accept what is Love your inner child or grow out of your Peter Pan I become confused and discouraged just contemplating the choices      The Impact of Psychological Well-Being on University Students Cristina
