The New Black Middle Class in South Africa Roger Southall, 2016 Provides the most comprehensive account since the early 1960s of South Africa's black middle class 2016 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title The rise of the black middle class is one of the most visible aspects of post apartheid society in South Africa Yet while it has been a major actor in the country's democratic reshaping analysis of its role has been all but lacking Rather the image presented by the media has been of black diamonds consumers of the products of advanced industrial economies and of corrupt tenderpreneurs who use their political connections to obtain contracts This book seeks to complicate that picture with a much needed analysis that recounts its historical development in colonial society prior to 1994 before examining the size shape and structure of the new black middle class in contemporary South Africa and its relation to its counterparts in the Global South Roger Southall is Professor Emeritus in Sociology University of the Witwatersrand Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Botswana Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Jacana

Parliament, 1993 Diversity and Division in Medicine Anne Digby, 2006 This is an innovative investigation of pluralism in health care Using both extensive archival material and oral histories it examines relationships between indigenous healing missionary medicine and western biomedicine The book includes the different regions within South Africa although focusing in most detail on the Cape the earliest area of white settlement In a wide ranging survey the division in medicine between western and indigenous medicine is analysed through an exploration of the evolving practices of healers missionaries doctors and nurses The book considers the extent to which there was a strategic crossing of boundaries in the construction of hybrid practices by these practitioners and the extent to which patients pursued health by sampling diverse care options Starting with missionary penetration during the early nineteenth century the volume outlines interventions by the colonial state in medicine and public health and the continued resilience of indigenous healing in the face of this The book ends by relating past to present in scrutinising the legacy of historical structures including those of the apartheid state for current health care and in briefly discussing the huge challenges that the HIV Aids pandemic poses in impacting on them The book thus provides an inclusive history of medicine for the New South Africa Africa Digest ,1958
