TASER® Conducted Electrical Weapons: Physiology, Pathology, and Law Mark W. Kroll, Jeffrey D. Ho, 2009-02-27 TASER Conducted Electrical Weapons are rapidly replacing the club for law enforcement control of violent subjects within many countries around the globe. A TASER CEW is a hand held device that delivers a 400 volt pulse with a duration tuned to control the skeletal muscles without affecting the heart at a distance of up to 6.5 meters over tiny wires. If necessary it begins with an arcing voltage of 50,000 V to penetrate thick clothing. The 50,000 V is never delivered to the body itself. Due to the widespread usage of these devices and the widespread misconceptions surrounding their operation this book will have significant utility. This volume is written for cardiologists, emergency physicians, pathologists, law enforcement management, corrections personnel and attorneys.

The Policing Machine Tony Cheng, 2023-12-13 A revelatory look at how the NYPD has resisted change through strategic and selective community engagement. The past few years have seen Americans express passionate demands for police transformation. But even as discussion of no knock warrants, chokeholds and body cameras has exploded, any changes to police procedures have only led to the same outcomes. Despite calls for increased accountability, police departments have successfully stonewalled change. In The Policing Machine, Tony Cheng reveals the stages of that resistance, offering a close look at the deep engagement strategies that NYPD precincts have developed with only subsets of the community in order to counter any truly meaningful democratic oversight. Cheng spent nearly two years in an unprecedented effort to understand the who and how of police community relationship building in New York City, documenting the many ways the police strategically distributed power and privilege within the community to increase their own public legitimacy without sacrificing their organizational independence. By setting up community councils that are conveniently run by police allies, handing out favors to local churches that will promote the police to their parishioners and offering additional support to institutions friendly to the police, the NYPD like police departments all over the country cultivate political capital through a strategic politics that involves distributing public resources, offering regulatory leniency and deploying coercive force. The fundamental challenge with police community relationships Cheng shows is not to build them. It is that they already exist and are motivated by a machinery designed to stymie reform.

The Day After Jason Randazzo, 2023-03-15 The Day After: The Life and Times of a New York FBI Agent tells the true stories of an FBI agent and some of the cases that were investigated in New York throughout a twenty eight year career. The cases and events involve a variety of investigations that have been publicized in the news and a few that the public have never heard about. The inner workings of the New York Office of the FBI are described in detail which allows the reader to envision how this relatively secretive world operates from the viewpoint of the rank and file brick agent. As in my first book entitled Just Another Day this book also reveals the stories of interactions with characters on both sides of the law. And the characters run from my neighborhood friends and associates in New York to those individuals whom you have seen either in the news or on the
