Health Education and Promotion Diana Karczmarczyk, Sara T. Pappa, 2024-08-30 This comprehensive textbook provides students with an accessible overview of both the key concepts and practical skills required to work in the field of health education and promotion. Primarily aligned with the core competencies identified by the National Health Education Commission Inc Areas of Responsibility and designed as ideal preparation for those taking the Certified Health Education Specialist CHES examination, this book offers both the theoretical foundations and practical skills required to fulfill a range of roles. From program planning and evaluation to communication and leadership, each chapter details best practices based on the latest research as well as case studies to show its application in multiple settings. Each chapter is also supported by discussion questions and activities to enable students to engage further with the content. This is an essential text for students taking a range of courses in health promotion education and planning as well as those preparing for the CHES examination.
