YOU'RE DEAD EXPECT BIG CHANGES IN THE AFTERLIFE AS THE UNDERWORLD GETS ITS FIRST FASHION MAKEOVER

IN MILLENNIA For three months in late 2043 an expedition of eight people most of them alive entered the afterlife on a special assignment to come up with ways to improve it They were commissioned by the Lord of Death himself some call him

Hades and joined by a uniquely qualified spirit who knew that landscape well the famous magus known as Merlin It turns out he served as the top Underworld guide to many cultures since death began and he wrote The Tibetan Book of the Dead about how they do things there in the Bardo Their job was to come up with ways to make death and the afterlife experience easier Nothing there was working right anymore nobody understood the place people were getting lost and confused complaints were mounting and all this was slowing up Earth's progress and the daytime life of living humans The team included Blaise a mysterious wisecracker who spends a lot of his time off planet mostly in the Pleiades Edward a sensible

Boston book editor Frederick once a mythology professor but now a freelance Gnostic Philomena his wife who ascended into a Light body ten years earlier Matthew a reclusive meditator who consorts with Thunderbirds Pipaluk a very old shaman from Greenland Tommy teenager who died 20 years ago and now knows the Land of the Dead firsthand and Merlin explainer of Mysteries and everyone's favorite afterlife guide Nothing is exempt from their Bardo retrofit No job is safe no way of doing things is secure Everything about the afterlife will change Next time you're there expect to remember more stay awake longer and not take all those strange spirits accosting you seriously Who knows You might even like it

Sculpture in Britain and Ireland John Higgitt,1986 BAR 152 1986 The Haskins Society Journal 34 Person William North, Contributor Laura E Wangerin,2024-10-08 Essays illuminating a wide range of topics from Cistercian preachers and the geography of purgatory to royal and ecclesiastical justice and power This volume continues the Society's commitment to historical and interdisciplinary research from the early and central Middle Ages and demonstrates its belief that the close interrogation of primary documents yields new insights into or important recalibrations of our understanding of the past It begins by surveying the works of the Greek Fathers rendered into Latin in late antiquity exploring their reception and deployment in England before the conquest The twelfth century occupies a central place in this volume Four papers offer close readings or re-readings of key authors or sources one reconstructs William of Malmesbury's journeys in the mid 1130s another offers a new reading of two of Aelred of Rievaulx's royal biographies a third considers the influence of Henry of Marcy on Herbert of Clairvaux's Liber visionum et miraculorum Clarevallensium and a fourth examines the Historia Gaufredi Ducis and its outsized impact on the history of the ritual of dubbing. Two papers address royal and ecclesiastical justice in mid thirteenth century France through meticulous work with archival sources they respectively consider the case of Geoffroy de Milly and limits of sovereign authority and enquêtes as a technique of power. Further topics include the emerging geography of purgatory in the imagination of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries the different dimensions of medieval institutional culture as seen in the intersection of earthly and angelic power in Angevin England placed in dialogue with American medieval historiography and the evolving historiographical treatment of men of the Church employed as trusted administrators by Italian communes. The volume concludes with two essays on significant moments in the history of American medieval studies examinations of the publication history of Evelyn Faye Wilson's Stella Maris of John of Garland and of the life scholarship and legacy of Bennett David Hill round out the volume

The Religious Reuse of Roman Structures in Early Medieval England Tyler Bell, 2005 This work examines how and why Roman structures commonly villas forts and bathhouses were reinvented as religious centres in the Post Roman period. Two principal lines of enquiry are pursued the relationship of post Roman burials with Roman buildings and the relationship between early churches and Roman buildings. The aims of this research were to establish a unified corpus around which the study of these type sites may be pursued to present a balanced judicious and informed consideration of the problem of continuity and to critically assess various models for the progress from secular structures to sacred sites and to demonstrate that the physical remains of Roman structures had a significant impact on the religious landscape of Early Medieval England sites
