Cultural Landscapes of Universal Value Bernd von

Droste, Harald Plachter, Mechtild Rössler, 1995 Cultural landscapes are at the interface between nature and culture They represent the permanent interaction between humans and their environment shaping the surface of the earth With the rapid social and economic development cultural landscapes belong to the most fragile and threatened sites on earth Adapted protection and proper management is urgently needed Since 1992 outstanding cultural landscapes can be protected under the World Heritage Convention Thus the World Heritage Convention is the first international legal instrument recognizing and safeguarding this type of property for future generations This important step has led to enhanced international and national recognition The present volume aims to contribute to enhanced protection and management of cultural landscapes around the world It furthermore highlights in a truly interdisciplinary approach some of the most outstanding cultural landscapes of universal value in their geocultural and environmental context Biodiversity Adriano Sofo, 2011-10-10 Biodiversity is strongly affected by the rapid and accelerating changes in the global climate which largely stem from human activity Anthropogenic activities are causing highly influential impacts on species persistence The sustained environmental change wildlife is experiencing may surpass the capacity of developmental genetic and demographic mechanisms that populations have developed to deal with these alterations How biodiversity is perceived and maintained affects ecosystem functioning as well as how the goods and services that ecosystems provide to humans can be used Recognizing biodiversity is essential to preserve wildlife Furthermore the measure management and protection of ecosystem biodiversity requires different and innovative approaches For all these reasons the aim of the present book is to give an up to date overview of the studies on biodiversity at all levels in order to better understand the dynamics and the mechanisms at the basis of the richness of life forms both in terrestrial including agro ecosystems and marine environments Mediterranean Prehistoric Heritage Ian Hodder, Louise Doughty, McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research, 2007 Drawing on the experience of the Temper project Training Education Management and Prehistory in the Mediterranean and wider examples from the Mediterranean this volume explores the issues inherent in managing interpreting and presenting prehistoric archaeological sites The first section of the book contains thematic chapters on conservation visitor management and interpretation public participation and issues of managing sites within their cultural landscape the second section focuses on archaeology and education and the politics of national curricula and presents detailed case studies Written by academics and those working in the fields of archaeology architecture heritage management and education this volume will be invaluable to students and practitioners alike L'identità culturale del paesaggio mediterraneo. Risorse, processo e strategie sostenibili Vincenzo Calvanese, 2009 Costruire in pietra. Fra innovazione e tradizione Vincenzo Calvanese, 2007 Turkish Studies Association Bulletin Turkish Studies Association, 2000 Perception and Evaluation of Cultural Landscapes Panagiotis N. Doukellis, Lina G. Mendonça, 2004 International Journal of Turkish Studies, 2009 Old Fields Society for Ecological Restoration International, 2007-10-12 Old Fields brings together leading experts from around the world to synthesize past and current work on old fields providing an up to date perspective on the ecological dynamics of abandoned land The book gives readers a broad understanding of why agricultural land is abandoned the factors that determine the ecological recovery of old fields and how this understanding contributes to theoretical and applied ecology
