with over two hundred archival photographs and drawings from the Historic American Building Survey Margaret Mary Lou Widmer,1996-10-31 A biography of Margaret Haughery the beloved woman who went from a life of poverty to one of philanthropy and became known as the Angel of New Orleans Margaret Haughery gave everything she ever had to the orphans and the poor Despite being unable either to read or write she possessed an incredible business acumen which allowed her to donate including what she bequeathed in her will more than 500 000 throughout her life What is perhaps even more astounding is that Margaret lost everyone she ever loved yet she was still able to give so much love As a child in the Maryland area this Irish immigrant lost her parents and her baby sister when they died in a fever epidemic She was separated from her brother in the aftermath and he very well may have perished in the epidemic as well Then when she was a young wife and mother in New Orleans her husband died of consumption Soon afterward her newborn daughter died in her sleep Determined to not succumb to self pity and depression Margaret strengthened by her Roman Catholic faith dedicated the rest of her life to helping the orphans and the poor Helping to support an orphanage she first started a dairy to provide milk for the children Then she went on to earn a small fortune from running a local bakery This financial success allowed her to donate enormous monetary sums to charity Still her fiscal generosity was eclipsed by her spiritual gifts This docunovel has dialogue added to enliven the text

Postcards Matthew Griffis, 2020-09-22 New Orleans in Golden Age Postcards showcases over three hundred vintage postcard images of the city printed in glorious color. From popular tourist attractions restaurants and grand hotels to local businesses banks churches neighborhoods civic buildings and parks the book not only celebrates these cards visual beauty but also considers their historic value. After providing an overview of the history of postcards in New Orleans Matthew Griffis expertly arranges and describes the postcards by subject or theme. Focusing on the period from 1900 to 1920 the book is the first to offer information about the cards many publishers. More than a century ago people sent postcards like we make phone calls today. Many also collected postcards even trading them in groups or clubs. Adorned with colorized views of urban and rural landscapes postcards offered people a chance to own images of places they lived visited or merely dreamed of visiting. Today these relics remain one of the richest visual records of the last century as they offer a glimpse at the ways a city represented itself. They now appear regularly in art exhibits blogs and research collections. Many of the cards in this book have not been widely seen in well over a century and many of the places and traditions they depict have long since vanished.
