New Traditions In Terror:

New Traditions in Terror, 2001 Combating a Modern Hydra: Al Qaeda and the Global War on Terrorism, 2005

Combating a Modern Hydra Al Qaeda and the Global War on Terrorism is number eight in the Combat Studies Institute's Global War on Terrorism GWOT Occasional Paper series This work resulted from discussions at Fort Leavenworth about the nature of the enemy facing the United States and its allies since 11 September 2001 Osama bin Laden and his terrorist network had been present at some level in the national and international consciousness since the late 1990s The events of 11 September 2001 and subsequent global operations taken against Al Qaeda have brought this group to the forefront of the GWOT While successes have been achieved in the GWOT the enemy has proven to be resilient and adaptive This study by Mr Sean Kalic of the Department of Military History US Army Command and General Staff College examines modern transnational terrorism from the 1960s to the present day with special emphasis on the adaptation Al Qaeda and other nonstate actors have taken in response to the actions of the United States and its allies This work provides a cautionary warning about the likelihood Al Qaeda will continue to survive and execute missions in the current operating environment Mr Kalic synthesizes much of the pertinent literature and offers insights into the actions taken to fight terrorists Most importantly he advises a continual reevaluation of the threat based on Al Qaeda's exhibitory resiliency and adaptability Officers and soldiers who have recently served in operations against the terrorist worldwide will certainly see utility here As the US Army continues its efforts in combating terrorists the thoughts found in this narrative are well worth considering Terrorist's Creed R. Griffin, 2012-09-19 Terrorist's Creed casts a penetrating beam of empathetic understanding into the disturbing and murky psychological world of fanatical violence explaining how the fanaticism it demands stems from the profoundly human need to imbue existence with meaning and transcendence The Moral Dilemmas of Fighting Terrorism and Guerrilla Groups Jean-François Caron, 2023-01-30 The Moral Dilemmas of Fighting Terrorism and Guerrilla Groups discusses the most important ethical dilemmas associated with the fight against terrorist organizations and guerrilla groups by providing readers with a rigorous yet accessible analysis of how these forms of violence can be justified and how they ought to be fought by entities targeted by groups resorting to these strategies It will be valuable to anyone interested in understanding the main ethical questions associated with these forms of political violence and the way they can be addressed After providing conceptual clarifications that will allow the reader to distinguish between terrorism and guerrilla warfare it explains and discusses what the criteria are that can justify resorting to lethal violence on the part of the latter group as well as the criteria that can determine the identity of those who can legitimately be targeted by these groups The book analyzes when terrorists ought to be targeted and how this can be done focusing on the inherent problems associated with the solutions that are normally used against state actors in order to prevent attacks on their part namely what can be coined as non violent alternatives to war such as economic or diplomatic sanctions arm embargoes and non violent resistance and on the other hand preemptive attacks Debating Terrorism and Counterterrorism Stuart Gottlieb, 2013-03-29 Featuring paired pro con pieces written specifically for this volume Debating Terrorism and Counterterrorism Conflicting Perspectives on Causes Contexts and Responses encourages students to grapple with the central debates surrounding the field of terrorism With topics ranging from the root causes of terrorism the role of religion in terrorism whether suicide terrorism is ever justified whether the spread of democracy can help defeat terrorism and what trade offs should exist between security and civil liberties Gottlieb s outstanding cast of contributors returns compelling students to wrestle with the conflicting perspectives that define the field Stuart Gottlieb frames the paired essays with incisive headnotes providing historical context and preparing students to read each argument critically Each selection has been updated to account for recent world events policy changes and new scholarship New to the reader and by reviewer request is a chapter Can Global Institutions Make a Difference in Fighting Terrorism Disciplining Terror Lisa Stampnitzky, 2013-04-18 Since 9 11 we have been told that terrorists are pathological evildoers Yet before the 1970s hijackings assassinations and other acts now called terrorism were considered the work of rational actors Disciplining Terror explains how political violence became terrorism and how this transformation ultimately led to the current war on terror New Traditions in Terror Scott H. Urban, J. Michael Major, 2001-11 The stories within these pages will bring you into the world of ghosts ghouls werewolves demons and psychos Welcome back to where the horror all began Welcome home Creolizing Hannah Arendt Marilyn Nissim-Sabat, Neil Roberts, 2024-05-13 Creolizing Hannah Arendt is the first book to explore the implications of creolizing Hannah Arendt 1906 75 and thinking for action liberation freedom power democracy identity racism prejudice totalitarianism immigration judgment revolution decolonial politics the human and the modern traditions of Caribbean political thought Africana philosophy and existential phenomenology Contributors include Cristina Beltr n Roger Berkowitz Ang lica Maria Bernal Robert Eaglestone Stephen Nathan Haymes Paget Henry Thomas Meagher Dana Francisco Miranda Marilyn Nissim Sabat Niklas Plautzer Neil Roberts Saga-book of the Viking Club Viking Society for Northern Research, 1898 List of members in v 3 5 Modern Culture William W. Hudson, Graeme Mercer Adam, 1900 Terrorism--looking Ahead, Issues and Options for Congress United States. Congress. House. Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, Library of Congress. Congressional Research Service, 1996 A Eurocentric Study of New Terrorism Henrik Lindholm, 2020-07-09 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject Politics Topic Peace and Conflict Security grade A Lund University The Institute of Political Science course Bachelor s degree course language English abstract New Terrorism has been a highly regarded theory in the field of terrorism since the late 1990s but how accurate is it in regards to European terrorism in 2010 2018 Are terrorists more lethal primarily religious part of transnational and decentralized organizations and are they using CBRN weapons This paper uses a quantitative study with a descriptive and retroductive approach of all terror attacks in Europe 2010 2018 to examine New Terrorism s validity and propose possible changes to the theory I find that New Terrorism is partly correct Terror groups are primarily transnational and non hierarchical and lethality is higher than in the early 90s although less so in Western Europe Separatist groups are however found to be the most common type of movement followed by ideological movements responsible for 4 and 2 times as many terror attacks as religious groups Likewise the potential threat of terrorists using CBRN weapons for mass destruction is found to be incorrect Based on this New Terrorism 2 0 Europe edition is proposed Stating that separatist and ideological groups are the most common lethality is high but less so in Western Europe organizations are primarily transnational and non hierarchical and the risk of terrorist using CBRN weapons is low in contemporary European terrorism Muslims, West, and the War Against Terrorism S. Khalilullah,2002

Susceptibilities of the Tourism Industry. The Effect of Terrorism on commercial Surf Tourism Esteban Hack,2018-11-22 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Tourism Miscellaneous grade 2 1 University of Plymouth Cornwall College Newquay in partnership with UoP course Marine Sports Science BSc Hons language English abstract The tourism industry has significant repercussions in regards to economic value to destinations worldwide but is susceptible to external shocks such as terrorism as tourist numbers follow terroristic activity causing economic damage to destinations beyond managerial control Surf tourism is of growing economic social and environmental value to destinations in Indonesia due to the region s abundance of high quality waves and resulting attractiveness to surfers however it is a region frequented by terrorist activity The aim of this paper is to investigate the effect of terrorism on commercial surf tourism as a sub segment of the global tourism industry Data was obtained using a survey consisting of 5 closed ended questions assessing IAO variables of traveling surfers regarding the perception of terrorism as a risk influencing destination choice and travel plans 42 usable responses were collected over a three month period from January 7th to March 28th 2016 Results of the statistical analysis suggest that surfers demonstrate a different behaviour in comparison to other tourists and have a low perception of terrorism as a risk influencing destination choice In fact from the data and statistical analysis it appears that the significant reliance on the quality of waves at a destination outweighs the risk of terrorism as an influence on destination choice therefore accepting the tested hypothesis which stated that surf tourists do not perceive terrorism as a high risk influencing destination choice or travel plans Suggestions for future research include a replication of this study using a larger sample size and changes to the design of the questionnaire in order to improve upon limitations and further investigate conspicuous findings of this study as well as potential links to the field of behavioural psychology Lu Hsün and the New Culture Movement of Modern
