Kraak, Andre,Paterson, Andrew

Nfsas Application Form 2014 Second Semester:

Shadow Libraries Joe Karaganis, 2018-05-04 How students get the materials they need as opportunities for higher education expand but funding shrinks From the top down Shadow Libraries explores the institutions that shape the provision of educational materials from the formal sector of universities and publishers to the broadly informal ones organized by faculty copy shops student unions and students themselves It looks at the history of policy battles over access to education in the post World War II era and at the narrower versions that have played out in relation to research and textbooks from library policies to book subsidies to more recently the several open publication models that have emerged in the higher education sector From the bottom up Shadow Libraries explores how simply students get the materials they need It maps the ubiquitous practice of photocopying and what are in many cases the more marginal ones of buying books visiting libraries and downloading from unauthorized sources It looks at the informal networks that emerge in many contexts to share materials from face to face student networks to Facebook groups and at the processes that lead to the consolidation of some of those efforts into more organized archives that circulate offline and sometimes online the shadow libraries of the title If Alexandra Elbakyan's Sci Hub is the largest of these efforts to date the more characteristic part of her story is the prologue the personal struggle to participate in global scientific and educational communities and the recourse to a wide array of ad hoc strategies and networks when formal authorized means are lacking If Elbakyan's story has struck a chord it is in part because it brings this contradiction in the academic project into sharp relief universalist in principle and unequal in practice Shadow Libraries is a study of that tension in the digital era Contributors Balzs Bod Laura Czerniewicz Miroslaw Filiciak Mariana Fossatti Jorge Gemetto Eve Gray Evelin Heidel Joe Karaganis Lawrence Liang Pedro Mizukami Jhessica Reia Alek Tarkowski

Change Management in TVET Colleges Kraak, Andre, Paterson,

Andrew, 2016-07-25 The Technical and Vocational Education and Training TVET college environment is marked by increasingly stark juxtapositions between what needs to be achieved in the post school education sector and the increasing difficulty of current conditions The triple challenge of poverty inequality and unemployment weighs heavily on the social political and economic fabric of the country and expectations are high that the TVET colleges can make a pivotal contribution to counter these challenges Despite laudable increases in TVET enrolment the education system needs to work harder to accommodate the weight of demand for post school further education and training FET band qualifications from young people not in education employment or training At the same time it is vital to secure adequate quality in TVET programmes which depend so much on the competence and commitment of college lecturers This collection offers a set of research papers that provide new analytic and empirical material on The political economy of TVET types in different countries which by comparison illuminate the South African case A periodisation of government interventions in the TVET sector over the last three decades The unsettled state and status of TVET lecturers in relation to their job requirements and conditions of service The halting evolution of collegial relationships between college lecturers towards higher collegiality Employer expectations of college graduates and how colleges are responding and An analysis of the outcomes of a college improvement intervention in Limpopo and the Eastern Cape This book will offer valuable information and insights for decision makers as well as analysts of institutional change concerning links between education and economic growth with particular regard to TVET graduates employment rates National Youth Development Agency Annual Report South Africa.
