Nice Internationalization Higher Education Asia Pacific Prospects:

Globalizing China - Social and Governance Reforms Ka Ho Mok, 2022-12-30 Unlike most books which consider China's transformation and globalization over the last four decades by focusing on China's economic growth this book examines how the Chinese regime has handled the increasingly complex sociopolitical and socio-economic challenges generated as a result of the country's economic growth and transformation challenges arising both from within the country and also from the external political environment Based on extensive original research the book outlines how China's economic development has generated social and governance pressures discusses the government's social educational and governance reforms and highlights how China's development experiences which differ from the Western economies with democratic political regimes have drawn increasing attention from other countries in the developing world as an example to follow

Internationalization of Higher Education Yin Cheong Cheng, Alan Chi Keung Cheung, Shun Wing Ng, 2015-11-03 This book reviews and analyses the issues and policies of internationalization and exportation of higher education and investigates the strategies and models of education hub development in the context of globalization with Hong Kong in the Asia Pacific region as a case study It examines the close relationship between education hubs and higher education as well as the strategic functions of an education hub in the future development of a society in a competitive global environment It also analyses the major strengths weaknesses opportunities and threats of Hong Kong's higher education in relation to its potential for exporting higher education to Asian markets In particular it reviews the current state of higher education services offered by Hong Kong in three target markets and their segmentation and proposes the most appropriate market entry strategies for education service providers

Internationalisation of Higher Education in Asia Pacific Countries Jane Knight, Hans de Wit, 1997 This book provides a conceptual framework for understanding the internationalisation of higher education discusses strategies for internationalisation of higher education in Asia Pacific countries then presents chapters on the internationalisation of higher education in Australia Hong Kong Indonesia Japan Malaysia New Zealand Singapore Thailand and the South Pacific

Prospects, 1997 Educational Reciprocity and Adaptivity Abe Ata, Ly Tran, Indika Liyanage, 2017-12-22 Educational Reciprocity and Adaptability challenges the common belief that adapting to new educational settings is the responsibility of international students alone The book argues that reciprocal responses are required by students and stakeholders alike for an efficient and equitable accommodation of international students in educational settings Considering how international students negotiate academic challenges and social tensions it presents both theoretical frameworks and practical tools to work around the tension regarding ethical academic practices Crucially exploring these issues across a range of geographical and institutional contexts and therefore offering critical insights into significant developments in international education across the world the much needed research in this edited collection explores institutional educational policies regarding international students and stakeholders institutional practices and how they are received educational adaptability and responses from different stakeholders the experiences of international students and institutions in negotiating academic and social tensions This important contribution to research on the experiences of international students in different geographical and educational contexts is of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of international education comparative education sociology of education youth studies intercultural studies migration studies and TESOL Proceedings ,1997 Internationalizing Higher Education Peter Ninnes,Meeri Hellstén,2006-01-20 Globalization is a multifaceted phenomenon and one of its major components is the internationalization of education The increasing pace and complexity of global knowledge flows and the accelerating exchange of educational ideas practices and policies are important drivers of globalization Higher Education is a key site for these flows and exchanges This book casts a critical eye on the internationalization of higher education It peels back taken for granted practices and beliefs explores the gaps and silences in current pedagogy and practices and addresses the ambiguities tensions and contradictions in internationalization In this volume scholars from a range of disciplines and regions critically examine the co modification of higher education teaching and support for international students international partnerships for aid and trade and the impacts on academics work Critical Reflections on the Internationalisation of Higher Education in the Global South Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis,Cheryl Qiumei Yu,2024-04-26 If you are involved in academia policy making or are simply curious about the complex features of internationalisation in the Global South this work is your roadmap to deeper more critical reflections on the internationalisation of higher education

Proceedings of the International Seminar on Internationalization of SMEs and Human Resource Development in the Asia-Pacific Region ,1996 Impacts of Study Abroad on Higher Education Development Nobuko Kayashima,Miki Sugimura,Kazuo Kuroda,Yuto Kitamura,2024-08-10 This open access book is an exceptional contribution to the burgeoning fields of higher education development and higher education internationalization as it empirically examines the impact of the study abroad experiences of faculty members on individual and institutional development The research and its outcomes presented here utilize results from a large scale survey and interviews of faculty at ten leading universities in Malaysia Indonesia Vietnam and Cambodia The analyses show that the study abroad experiences of faculty members impact not only improvements in research quality and development of educational programs but also serve as the foundation for international activities at the university crucially important in today s higher education landscape On the other hand the research reveals the rapid development of higher education at the local and regional levels including the development of graduate programs for faculty training in the home country leading to increasing rates of study abroad within Southeast Asia Through the analyses presented this book offers a new understanding of higher education development and internationalization in Southeast Asia by examining the impact of study abroad on the academic profession higher education institutions and the higher education sector Migration and Development Asmita Naik,Jobst Koehler,International Organization for Migration, 2008 Policy coherence between migration and development agendas is of increasing interest in current times there is growing recognition that migration policies should support rather than hinder investment in international development The United Nations High Level Dialogue of September 2006 and the Global Forum on Migration and Development of July 2007 both raised the attention given to this issue Now that the interface between migration and development has been recognized the challenge is to turn this interest into working level policies and programmes The aim of this study is to build on existing international research and take the analysis to the next higher level showing how these connections can be made in practice Policy makers often focus on remittances as the main means of translating the migration development nexus into reality However this paper shows that there are many stages in the migration cycle from departure to return and reintegration back home that present opportunities to make migration more development friendly and conversely to raise development awareness of migration factors
