Nice Qualitative Research Study Leadership Second:

Organizational Change, Leadership and Ethics Rune Todnem By, Bernard Burnes, Mark Hughes, 2023-02-28

Organizations and societies are facing extreme challenges that require action IPCC 2021 The UN's sustainability goals demographic change and the green shift are knocking on the door while traditional education and ways of leading and managing this development often fail to keep up Organizational Change Leadership and Ethics challenges leadership orthodoxy assumptions and myths currently preventing the further development of theory and practice It encourages intelligent disobedience in support of greater leadership capabilities and capacity in organisations and societies As such the book is written for everyone who wants to be MAD to Make A Difference students scholars and practitioners alike Chapter 5 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license ECMLG 2016 - Proceedings of the 12th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance, Proceedings of the 12th European Conference on Management Leadership and Governance Resources in Education, 1994-04 Aid and conditionality: Enhancing good governance in sub-Saharan Africa Fidelis Etah Ewane, 2008-10-13 Master's Thesis from the year 2004 in the subject Politics Region Africa grade Merit University of Kent language English abstract The persistent low state of development in sub-Saharan Africa has become a global challenge Academics and think tanks continue to search for solutions to Africa's longstanding problems Studies have proven that the entire region is essentially confronted with a crisis of social structures and government and the fragmentation of authority is the hallmark of this crisis Van Hoyweghen Smis 2002 575 Over twenty four million people are infected with AIDS HIV growth of per capita income is low and civil wars have killed millions in Rwanda Burundi Liberia Sierra Leone and the Democratic Republic of Congo African governments owe billions of dollars in debt Polanyi 2003 563 This irreversible trend brought the good governance discourse in development cooperation between the donors and African counterparts The purpose of this paper is to examine how the concept of good governance is being implemented in Africa For clarity purposes the work is limited to the analysis of the efforts being made by the European Union EU and the World Bank in assisting African countries to implement good governance This choice is based on the fact that the EU and World Bank are the main multilateral aid donors and development partners of the region It argues that good governance enhances transparency in the use of development aid helps to reduce poverty and spurs development and that it is necessary to foster institutional reforms causative argument The paper further argues that implementing good governance will improve the use of political power by leaders and help in the consolidation of peace normative argument Achieving global governance is a main issue in international politics today Enforcing good governance is a must if Africa has to be fully integrated into the process of globalisation And for globalisation to be complete and meaningful poverty in Africa as well as other parts of the world must be eradicated No amount of foreign aid can lead to meaningful development without effective governance The poor state of development in Africa produces a backlash that has a global reach Europe for example is facing a huge influx of migrants from Africa in search for greener pastures Eradicating poverty is therefore a global challenge as the world becomes smaller The fight against poverty and underdevelopment has given rise to a greater inter state relationship in which powerful institutions play a decisive role
