On Children And Death On Children And Death:

On Children and Death Elisabeth Kübler-Ross, 2011-07-26 On Children and Death is a major addition to the classic works of Elisabeth Kübler-Ross whose On Death and Dying and Living with Death and Dying have been continuing sources of strength and solace for tens of millions of devoted readers worldwide. Based on a decade of working with dying children, this compassionate book offers the families of dead and dying children the help and hope they need to survive. In warm, simple language, Dr. Kübler-Ross speaks directly to the fears, doubts, anger, confusion, and anguish of parents confronting the terminal illness or sudden death of a child. Children and Death Costa Papadatos, Danai Papadatou, 2013-02-01 Selected papers from the 1st International Conference on Children and Death held in October/November 1989 in Athens. It was attended by over 500 participants from all over the world. Never Too Young to Know Phyllis R. Silverman, 2000 Using examples from children's lives as well as the results of research, this book provides explanations of the ways in which children experience death and gives ways in which relatives and professionals can best support them. Death Talk Glenda Fredman, 2018-05-08 Death Talk is about the healing power of conversation. It gives numerous examples of children and their families being released from the grip of sadness, isolation, and fear by talking about their own experiences of death. Explaining Death to Children Earl A. Grollman, 1967 On Children and Death Elisabeth Kübler-Ross, 1993 Children's Understanding of Death Victoria Talwar, Paul L. Harris, Michael Schleifer, 2011-04-25 In order to understand how adults deal with children's questions about death, we must examine how children understand death as well as the broader society's conceptions of death, the tensions between biological and supernatural views of death, and theories on how children should be taught about death. This collection of essays comprehensively examines children's ideas about death, both biological and religious. Written by specialists from developmental psychology, pediatrics, philosophy, anthropology, and legal studies, it offers a truly interdisciplinary approach to the topic. The volume examines different conceptions of death and their impact on children's cognitive and emotional development and will be useful for courses in developmental psychology, clinical psychology, and certain education courses as well as philosophy classes, especially in ethics and epistemology. This collection will be of particular interest to researchers and practitioners in psychology, medical workers, and educators, both parents and teachers. Dying and Disabled Children Harold M. Dick, 1988 In this sensitive and compassionate look at terminally ill and disabled children, professionals from the medical community examine the stresses faced by their parents and siblings. They address the crucial element of communication within a family and between health care providers and family members in dealing with a child's serious illness. Ethical decision making, learning to recognize the child's suffering, and talking to children about death are honestly and clearly discussed. Experts offer direct interventions to help family members through the grieving process once a child has died. Thoughts on the Death of Little Children Samuel Irenæus Prime, 1854 The Death of a Child Peter Stanford, 2011-07-28 The death of a child is seldom discussed. This is for those who experience such tragedies the shock and the loss Preparing the Children Kathy Nussbaum,1998-12 After the Death of a Child Ann K. Finkbeiner,1998 Talking with Children and Young People about Death and Dying Mary Turner,Bob Thomas,2006 This photocopiable workbook is a popular resource designed to help adults talk to bereaved children in which Mary Turner offers useful insights into the concerns of children experiencing grief It will equip adults to encourage bereaved children to communicate their pain and understand the emotions aroused by the death of someone close to them Children and Death John E. Schowalter,1987-11-17 Bringing together the views of numerous distinguished scholars Children and Death investigates the child s concept of death from both academic and clinical points of view The contributors have aimed at developing practical guidelines for a multidisciplinary approach to the care and support of the dying child the child s family unit and staff who work with dying children The findings presented here are also applicable to care of children with life threatening illness Topics discussed include children s concepts of death emotional impact of disease perspectives on children s death and dying and coping with a child s death On Death Sara Smilansky,1987 This book presents a new theory and shows parents and professionals teachers counselors social workers psychologists medical doctors and nurses why and how to help young children understand and cope with death All children who must deal with death are at risk of emotional and behavioral disturbances at the time of loss and in the future They need help by adults in the cognitive and the emotional domain therefore adults should not wait to see if the child can adequately cope on his own The book will enable adults to develop knowledge attitudes and skills that will guide their intervention It will also develop their sensitivity to the special needs and problems that confront children aged 4 12 faced with crisis related to death in their community school hospital and family The theoretical and the practical aspects of the book are based on research and experiments conducted in Israel in the U S and in other countries and on the clinical experience of the author with children in crisis The book also includes a new valid and reliable questionnaire The Examination of Human and Animal Death Conceptualization of Children aged 4 12 a description of its psychometric characteristics and instructions for administration and scoring The questionnaire is a relatively simple instrument in both administration and scoring It enables a quantitative and qualitative diagnosis necessary to discern those areas in which the child needs intervention and help What Forever Means After the Death of a Child Kay Talbot,2002-01-01 Explaining Death to Children Earl A. Grollman,Louise Bates Ames,1967 Talking about Death Earl A. Grollman,1970 A discussion written for parents to talk to children about death Helping Children Live With Death and Loss Dinah Seibert,2003 Talking with Children and Young People about Death and Dying Mary Turner,1998 Talking with Children and Young People about Death and Dying is a workbook specifically designed for adults who are helping children who have suffered bereavement Used as a basis for opening discussions the text is an effective medium for helping children and young people to communicate and understand the often painful and confusing thoughts and emotions that are provoked by the death of someone close to them Presented in a format that can be read by both child and adult simultaneously every page is illustrated with pictures that both hold the child's interest and trigger ideas Beginning with an exploration of the concepts of death and dying this workbook covers all aspects and stages of bereavement from the initial pain of separation to the anger fear and dreams that the child may experience concluding with sections on remembering and going on
