Accountability for Mass Starvation Bridget Conley, Alex de Waal, Catriona Murdoch, Wayne Jordash QC, 2022-09-01 Famine is an age old scourge that almost disappeared in our lifetime Between 2000 and 2011 there were no famines and deaths in humanitarian emergencies were much reduced The humanitarian agenda was ascendant Then in 2017 the United Nations identified four situations that threatened famine or breached that threshold in north eastern Nigeria Somalia South Sudan and Yemen Today this list is longer Each of these famines is the result of military actions and exclusionary authoritarian politics conducted without regard to the wellbeing or even the survival of people Violations of international law including blockading ports attacks on health facilities violence against humanitarian workers and obstruction of relief aid are carried out with renewed impunity Yet there is an array of legal offenses ranging from war crimes and crimes against humanity to genocide available to a prosecutor to hold individuals to account for the deliberate starvation of civilians However there has been a dearth of investigations and accountability for those violating international law The reasons for this neglect and the gaps between the black letter law and practice are explored in this timely volume It provides a comprehensive overview of the key themes and cases required to catalyze a new approach to understanding the law as it relates to starvation It also illustrates the complications of historical and ongoing situations where starvation is used as a weapon of war and provides expert analysis on defining starvation early warning systems gender and mass starvation the use of sanctions journalistic reporting and memorialization of famine

The Burmese Labyrinth Carlos Sardiña Galache, 2020-03-10 In 2011 Myanmar embarked in a democratic transition from a brutal military rule that culminated four years later when the first free election in decades saw a landslide for the party of celebrated Nobel Prize winner Aung San Suu Kyi Yet even as the international community was celebrating a new dawn old wars were raging in the northern borderlands A crisis was emerging in western Arakan state where the regime intensified its oppression of the vulnerable Muslim Rohingya community By 2017 the conflict had escalated into a military onslaught against the Rohingya that provoked the most desperate refugee crisis of our times as over 750 000 of them fled their homes to neighbouring Bangladesh In The Burmese Labyrinth journalist Carlos Sardiña Galache gives the in depth story of the country Burma has always been an uneasy balance between multiple ethnic groups and religions He examines the deep roots behind the ethnic divisions that go back prior to the colonial period and so shockingly exploded in recent times This is a powerful portrait of a nation in perpetual conflict with itself

Myanmar's Rohingya Genocide Ronan Lee, 2021-01-28 The genocide in Myanmar has drawn global attention as Nobel Peace Prize laureate Aung San Suu Kyi appears to be presiding over human rights violations forced migrations and extra judicial killings on an enormous scale This unique study draws on thousands of hours of interviews and testimony from the Rohingya themselves to assess and outline the full scale of the disaster Casting new light on Rohingya identity history and culture this will be an essential contribution to the study of the Rohingya people and to the study of the early stages of genocide This

Preble,Charmaine N. Willis,2024-08-22 The past few decades have witnessed a proliferation of economic sanctions yet there seem to be few examples of sanctions meeting sender states goals Under what conditions do sanctions fail to change the behavior of so called international pariah states countries who violate various international norms This book examines the impact of economic sanctions on target states trading relationships through social network analysis a method that has rarely been applied to the study of sanctions Drawing on UN Comtrade data Trading with Pariahs Trade Networks and the Failure of Economic Sanctions shows that the imposition of sanctions can drastically change some states trading networks as states either find new trading partners in the case of North Korea or feel the sting of the sanctions from key trading partners like Iran Trading networks such as Myanmar s remain relatively stable over time as key trading partners refuse to impose sanctions Through the theory of weaponized interdependence Keith A Preble and Charmaine N Willis argue that the success or failure of sanctions to change target states behavior depends on who imposes the sanctions Sanctions imposed by the right sender states can be successful but also cannot rely solely on policies of isolation to achieve the goals of the sanctions      The Book Review Digest ,2004      The Politics of Civil Society Building Kees Biekart,1999 Strengthening civil society may be all the rage in the international donor community but what does it mean in practice This seminal work critically examines the political aspects of civil society building and the role of non governmental development aid agencies during recent democratic transitions in Central America
