Online Newsgathering Research And Reporting For Journalism:

Online Newsgathering Stephen Quinn, Stephen Lamble, 2008 This book is for the many journalists who didn't attend a formal journalism school before going to work those journalists who went to J school but did so before online information gathering was popular and for any student studying journalism in college today MediaWriting W. Richard Whitaker, Ronald D. Smith, Janet E. Ramsey, 2013-03-01 MediaWriting is an introductory hands on textbook for students preparing to write in the current multimedia environment. Rather than just talk about the differences among the styles of print, broadcast and public relations, MediaWriting synthesizes and integrates them while weaving in basic principles of Internet writing and social media reporting. Complete with real world examples, practical writing exercises and tips and information for entering into the profession, MediaWriting continues to give students the tools they need to become a successful media writer. The new edition has been extensively rewritten to reflect the dynamic nature of the profession, paying significant attention to how the Internet and social media have become essential communication tools for print and broadcast journalists and public relations professionals. Further updates and features include: Increased attention to computer assisted reporting, the preparation of online copy and social media applications. Two new chapters on lead writing and new media. A separate chapter focused solely on ethics. Explanatory how-to boxes that help students understand and retain main themes. Illustrative "It Happened to Me" vignettes from the authors' professional experiences. Discussion questions and exercises at the end of every chapter. Suggested readings that highlight biographies, books and websites that expand the scope and definition of professionalism. In addition to new multimedia elements, the fourth edition's companion website features enhanced resources for both students and instructors, including chapter overviews, writing tips, a test bank, sample critiques and a sample syllabus 21st Century Communication: A Reference Handbook William F. Eadie, 2009-05-15 Highlights the most important topics, issues, questions and debates affecting the field of communication in the 21st Century.

Social Media for Journalists Megan Knight, Clare Cook, 2013-05-22 A much-needed one-stop guide for students and practitioners that covers the theory and principles, the skills and practice, and also the realities of building a successful career in the new economy of journalism Television Journalism Stephen Cushion, 2011-11-10 Amidst the glut of studies on new media and the news, the enduring medium of television finally gets the attention it deserves. Cushion brings television news back into perfect focus in a book that offers historical depth, geographical breadth, empirical analysis and, above all, political significance. Through an interrogation of the dynamics of and relations between regulation, ownership, the working practices of journalism and the news audience, Cushion makes a clear case for why and how television news should be firmly positioned in the public interest. It should be required reading for anyone concerned with news and journalism. Natalie Fenton, Goldsmiths University of London An admirably ambitious synthesis of journalism scholarship and journalism practice, providing a comprehensive resource of historical analysis, contemporary trends and key data. Stewart Purvis City University
