Commanders of Dutch East India Ships in the Eighteenth Century J. R. Bruijn, 2011 Provides a detailed picture of the lives of the commanders and those around them both at home and at sea An original and evocative window onto the lives of men who bridged the two worlds of eighteenth century Europe and the Far East Professor Nicholas Rodger This book represents a major contribution to our knowledge and understanding of the East Indian maritime world of the European trading companies The Dutch East India Company which ruled large and important parts of what is now Indonesia and which controlled the highly lucrative trade from the Dutch East Indies to Europe much of it a monopoly trade in pepper and other spices was in this period larger and better established than its British counterpart The book reconstructs and explores the careers of the highly important and influential commanders of the Dutch East India ships which plied the trade routes between the East Indies and the Netherlands It covers the company's system of examinations how mates and masters acquired their navigational knowledge how they lived their lives at sea and on land and how making use of the enormous opportunities for private trade they were able to make substantial fortunes and climb the social ladder The book contains a wealth of material on the social history of the commanders and those around them both at home and at sea JAAP R BRUIJN is Professor Emeritus of Maritime History at Leiden University He is one of the leading maritime historians in the Netherlands

Ibero-Dutch Imperial Entanglements in the Seventeenth Century Silvia Z. Mitchell, Erica Heinsen-Roach, 2025-01-25 This book explores the entanglements among Spain Portugal and the Dutch Republic during the seventeenth century from a global perspective It offers a compelling analysis of how Ibero Dutch relations shifted from violence and conflict during the Iberian Union 1580 1640 and the Dutch quest for independence 1579 1648 into collaboration and coexistence in the century's second half The encounters between the Iberians and the Dutch in the Pacific Atlantic and Mediterranean regions highlight their centrality in geopolitical shifts around the globe Challenging the paradigm of decline the contributions gathered here demonstrate that instead each polity embraced strategic trade offs and reshaped imperial pursuits that ultimately allowed them to thrive as empires during the entire seventeenth century

Genesis and Nemesis of the First Dutch Colonial Empire in Asia and South Africa, 1596-1811 Gerrit Knaap, 2022-12-28 Based upon a sweeping command of Dutch East India Company VOC primary sources Knaap's manuscript offers a thought provoking thematic examination and chronological survey of the Dutch Republic's overseas and colonial expansion in Asia and South Africa mainly through the VOC and its successors the Batavian Republic the Kingdom of Holland and Franco Dutch Java over a period of more than two centuries 1596-1811 It elucidates and deals with several conceptual and theoretical issues that are intrinsically important and germane to a polity's definition of and how it chooses to execute the process of expansion overseas in the early modern period One of this work's major arguments and contributions is its advocacy that the Dutch VOC's expansion in Asia was an imperial project and must be seen as an act of empire or at the very minimum the attempt to construct one via the innovative utilization of a highly organized and dynamic commercial institution with significant political and diplomatic power and naval and military resources
