Meditations of Marcus Aurelius (Wisehouse Classics Edition) Marcus Aurelius, 2017-09-20 MEDITATIONS Medieval Greek Ta eis heauton literally to himself is a series of personal writings by Marcus Aurelius Roman Emperor from 161 to 180 AD recording his private notes to himself and ideas on Stoic philosophy Marcus Aurelius wrote the 12 books of the Meditations in Koine Greek as a source for his own guidance and self improvement It is possible that large portions of the work were written at Sirmium where he spent much time planning military campaigns from 170 to 180 Some of it was written while he was positioned at Aquincum on campaign in Pannonia because internal notes tell us that the first book was written when he was campaigning against the Quadi on the river Granova modern day Hron and the second book was written at Carnuntum It is unlikely that Marcus Aurelius ever intended the writings to be published and the work has no official title so Meditations is one of several titles commonly assigned to the collection These writings take the form of quotations varying in length from one sentence to long paragraphs

What Marcus provides us with are the reflections of a man who studied and lived the Stoic life and was its ultimate exemplar. Even if you don't buy into Stoicism or have no interest in Philosophy with a capital P, you can still find inspiration and solace in the Meditations as Marcus instructs us in dealing justly with others, overcoming emotional hardship, living life to the fullest by overcoming the fear of death, and resigning oneself to the insignificance of man in the universe. The Meditations are divided into twelve books. Each book contains anywhere from 16 to 75 numbered paragraphs ranging in length from a sentence to a page. The paragraphs are arranged without regard to sequence or subject matter. This haphazard method of compilation is really the book's only flaw. What the Meditations has always needed is a good index, but I've never found a volume that has one. It is a pleasure to publish this new high quality and affordable edition of this timeless book.

Meditations Marcus Aurelius, 2011-09-15. Meditations is a private notebook of philosophical reflections with universal significance.
