Meeting F Scott Fitzgerald:

Meeting F. Scott Fitzgerald Larry Vanderveen, 2015-12-22 This is the story of F Scott Fitzgerald's life as he might have told it himself while speaking to a Los Angeles book club in early December of 1940 Holding back nothing he relives the joy and the sorrow the pain and the pleasure of one of the greatest authors of the 20th century Author Larry Vanderveen also lectures on the life and works of F Scott Fitzgerald His extensive research on the author includes visits to places where Fitzgerald lived worked studied and played from his Princeton dormitory to the room in which he died He lives in Los Angeles with his wife and near their three daughters The Last Castle Denise Kiernan, 2017-09-26 The true story behind the Gilded Age mansion Biltmore the largest grandest residence ever built in the United States Amazon.com Towards a Theory of Life-Writing Marija Krsteva, 2022-11-30 Towards a Theory of Life Writing Genre Blending provides a look into the rules of life writing genre blending proposing a theory to explain and illustrate the main regulations governing such genre play It centers on fact and fiction duality in the formation of auto biofictional genres This book investigates the existing developments in this field and explores major criticism and lines of inquiry in order to arrive at the theory of life writing genre play textuality The specific interplay of the different generic characteristics develops a specific textuality at the heart of it This is termed biofictional preservation biopreservation to explain the textual transformation and the shaping of the auto biofictional genres Written for undergraduate and graduate students but also for the general readers the book further exemplifies the theory in the analyses of different biofictions about the American authors F Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway featuring overlapping and juxtaposed material This volume aims to provide a theory of this specific textuality in order to better understand and approach the process in question as well as to open up new horizons for further study and exploration F. Scott Fitzgerald's Odyssey Bernard R. Tanner, 2003 In this study independent scholar Tanner aims to show that F Scott Fitzgerald designed The Great Gatsby using literary methods such as burlesquing characters from mythology that he had found in James Joyce's Ulysses The focus is on commonly overlooked Biblical parodies underlying Fitzgerald's text Tanner taught high school English for 30 years in Palo Alto California The volume is not indexed Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com F. Scott Fitzgerald Henry Claridge, 1991 First Published in 1992 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company History Meets Fiction Beverley C. Southgate, 2014-09-11 Is history factual or just another form of fiction Are there distinct boundaries between the two or just extensive borderlands How do novelists represent historians and history The relationship between history and fiction has always been contentious and sometimes turbulent not least because the two have traditionally been seen as mutually exclusive opposites However new hybrid forms of writing from historical fiction to docudramas to fictionalised biographies have led to the blurring of boundaries and given rise to the claim that history itself is just another form of fiction In his thought provoking new book Beverley Southgate untangles this knotty relationship setting his discussion in a broad historical and philosophical context Throughout Southgate invokes a variety of writers to illuminate his arguments from Dickens and Proust through Virginia Woolf and Daphne du Maurier to such contemporary novelists as Tim O'Brien, Penelope Lively and Graham Swift. Anyone interested in the many meeting points between history and fiction will find this an engaging, accessible and stimulating read. The Critical Reputation of F. In 1939 Christopher Isherwood and W. H. Auden emigrated together to the United States. In spare, luminous prose, these diaries describe Isherwood's search for a new life in California, his work as a screenwriter in Hollywood, his pacifism during World War II, and his friendships with such gifted artists and intellectuals as Garbo, Chaplin, Thomas Mann, Charles Laughton, Gielgud, Olivier, Richard Burton, and Aldous Huxley. Throughout this period, Isherwood continued to write novels and sustain his literary friendships with E. M. Forster, Somerset Maugham, Tennessee Williams, and others. He turned to his diaries several times a week to record jokes and gossip, observations about his adopted country, philosophy, and mystical insights. His devotion to his diary was a way of accounting for himself; he used it as both a discipline and a release. Allen D. Leman Swine Conference, 1997. QFinance, 2009-10-13. Joycean Elements in F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby Barney Tanner, Bernard R. Tanner, 2007 This research monograph argues that Scott Fitzgerald consciously used a variety of Joycean devices in THE GREAT GATSBY and these devices were the result of close readings of Joyce's DUBLINERS and ULYSSES The monograph breaks new ground in Fitzgerald scholarship and has implications for Joyceans as well The author's research was first begun under the mentorship of Professor Wallace Stegner and has lasted over 35 years Tanner also benefited from a correspondence with Edmund Wilson prior to Wilson's death This study sets out to prove that Fitzgerald modeled numerous elements of GATSBY on elements found in Joyce's ULYSSES FSF imitated Joyce's use of the first letter in each of the parts of ULYSSES There Joyce alluded to two matters 1 the first names of his characters and 2 the logical steps of a syllogism Fitzgerald enriched this device He developed three parts in his novel 3 3 3 and used the first and last letters of each of his 9 chapters for two purposes to repay in a bold and playful way his debt to Joyce and to honor Ernest Renan famed for his LIFE OF JESUS and a source of burlesque techniques employed in Gatsby This is just one example of a number of research issues raised by Tanner a number new to Fitzgerald scholarship Other chapters deal with FSF imitation of Joyce's Araby in Fitzgerald's story Absolution a precursor to Gatsby sources for Christian allusions and direct allusions to ULYSSES the shadowing and doubling of characters patterns of imagery and numeracy in topics and theme The work contains two appendices including a significant comparison of Trimalchio and THE GREAT GATSBY
