New Museum Theory and Practice Janet Marstine, 2006 Revealing Meanings through Multi-Sensory Experience Margaret Choi Kwan Lam, 2013-12-31 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject Art Miscellaneous grade Merit Kingston University London Kingston University London in Partnership with the Design Museum London U.K. course MA Curating Contemporary Design language English abstract Displaying art objects in exhibition is not only an artistic expression in the heart of curating but it is also an essential interface for curators to present stories and convey meanings. How to engage people beyond purely visual appeals is always a top of mind question embedded in curators' mind and the discourse has become a major concern among pioneers in recent times. Over the decade, frontier exhibitioners were attempting to breakthrough from a purely vision-dominated museum culture. Some exhibition experiments were successful and the movement has fundamentally changed the way curators think about exhibition making, including the ultimate purpose of displaying objects. The paradigm shift actually rings the bells and requires contemporary curators to pay attention to it. It is crucial to realize that the recent success was not only about the artistic sense of the artists but it is also the revolutionary belief of the frontier curators that has made it happen. This essay aims to uncover the distinctive differences in the core beliefs of multi-sensory approaches in order to find out dynamic answers to new display strategies. Cases include Partners Haus Der Kunst Munich 2003, Rain Room Barbican Centre London 2010 and Heiner Goebbels' Stifter's Dinge Ambica P3 London 2012.

Museum as Process Raymond Silverman, 2014-09-19 The museum has become a vital strategic space for negotiating ownership of and access to knowledge produced in local settings. Museum as Process presents community-engaged culture work of a group of scholars whose collaborative projects consider the social spaces between the museum and community and offer new ways of addressing the challenges of bridging the local and the global. Museum as Process explores a variety of strategies for engaging source communities in the process of translation and the collaborative mediation of cultural knowledge. Scholars from around the world reflect upon their work with specific communities in different parts of the world: Australia, Canada, Ghana, Great Britain, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, Philippines, South Africa, Taiwan, and the United States. Each global case study provides significant insights into what happens to knowledge as it moves back and forth between source communities and global sites, especially the museum. Museum as Process is an important contribution to understanding the relationships between museums and source communities and the flow of cultural knowledge

Scenography as New Ideology in Contemporary Curating and the Notion of Staging in Exhibitions Margaret Choi Kwan Lam, 2013-12-19 Master's Thesis from the year 2013 in the subject Art Miscellaneous grade Distinction Kingston University London Kingston University London in Partnership with the Design Museum London U K course MA Curating Contemporary Design language English abstract In the frontier of the exhibition scene a significant phenomenon is observed that a contemporary artistic staging practice called scenography has grown out from the theatre context and keeps expanding its influence in the exhibition context in recent time Scenography has been acting as a transformative force to reform the traditional exhibitionary complex and consequently this has led to an unprecedented intersection where scenography meets contemporary curating which further informs a radical ideological shift This paper aims to exploit a new land of discussion to look into this intersection between scenographic practice and contemporary curating its emergence and the subsequent revolution it has caused By seeing museums and exhibition spaces as metaphorical stages it fundamentally reconfigures the infrastructure of curating practices in terms of a shift in authorship architectural embodiment of ideas field of experience layered narrative dramaturgy and the hybrid expressions of new media Three case studies will demonstrate scenography's wide ranged capacities and various methodologies in dealing with contemporary issues Cases include BMW Museum Reopened in 2008 Cultures of the World Opened in 2010 and Leonardo's Last Supper A Vision by Peter Greenaway 2008 2010 Respectively they prove scenography's overarching influence of acting as a brandscape as a site of cultural mediation and as interference and discourse The whole discussion cuts through major discourses in the field both responding to the increasing awareness of the notion of staging experiences in the rise of experience economy and the expanding notion of curating in parallel Museum as a Site of Negotiation. Mediating High and Low Culture Margaret Choi Kwan

Lam, 2014-01-08 Essay from the year 2013 in the subject Art Installation Action Performance Art Modern Art grade Distinction Kingston University London Kingston University London in Partnership with the Design Museum London U K course MA Curating Contemporary Design language English abstract Between high and low culture there was once a deep and wide gulf The clear division was never a natural phenomenon but rather a result of a cultural act Throughout the history the conflict in between had taken a long way to resolve and the whole subject matter had caused marathon debates among modern cultural critics Museums as institutions once with absolute powers in its operation had been forced to face a worldwide revolution There were much more mixed emotions towards mass culture questioning inquiries struggles seduction and temptation at the same time which constituted a push and pull situation What were museums for Was it a time for museums to reconsider their role and democratize themselves What kind of resistance and temptation had museums encountered To what extent would curators act as pioneers to eliminate the gap in between taste diversity in art and design These questions are worthwhile to take a look into This essay aims to unveil the ways curators liberated themselves from a singular voiced museum practice which resulted in revolutions of curatorial models that incorporated multiple voices Cases include High and Low Modern Art and Popular Culture 1990 91 MOMA The People s Show 1990 Walsall Museum and Art Gallery and Postmodernism Style and Subversion 1970 1990 2011 V A Material Culture Review ,2008 Making Sense of Dress Margarete Ann Ordon,2008 Culture and International Law Hikmahanto Juwana,Jeffrey Thomas,Mohd Hazmi Mohd Rusli,Dhiana Puspitawati,2019-09-03 In this era of globalization International Law plays a significant role in facing rapid development of various legal issues Cultural preservation has emerged as an important legal issue that should be considered by States This book consists of academic papers presented and discussed during the 9th International Conference of the Centre of International Law Studies 9th CILS Conference held in Malang Indonesia 2 3 October 2018 The title of the book represents the major theme of the conference Culture and International Law It is argued that along with globalization cultural preservation is slowly ignored by States Various papers presented in the book cover five topics cultural heritage cultural rights culture and economic activity culture and armed conflict and a general topic The authors of the papers are outstanding academics from various countries Lithuania United States of America Australia Thailand and Indonesia The conference was organized by Universitas Indonesia in collaboration with Brawijaya University This book aims to give a useful contribution to the existing literature on International Law specifically focussing on cultural issues from the perspective of cultural heritage and rights economic as well as armed conflict Food and Museums Nina Levent,Irina D. Mihalache,2018-05-31 Museums of all kinds art history culture science centers and heritage sites are actively engaging with food through exhibitions collections and stories about food production consumption history taste and aesthetics Food also plays a central role in their food courts restaurants cafes gardens and gift shops Food and Museums is the first book to explore the diverse complex relationship between museums and food This edited collection features theoretical analysis from cultural historians anthropologists neuroscientists and food studies scholars interviews with museum professionals artists and chefs and critical case studies from a wide range of cultural institutions and museums to establish an interdisciplinary framework for the analysis of the role of food in museums Exploring the richness and complexity of sensory cultural social and political significance of food today as well as in the past the book demonstrates how food is changing the current museological landscape A fascinating look at contemporary museums through the lens of food this is an essential read for students and researchers in museum studies food studies cultural studies and sensory studies as well as museum and food professionals A Place in Europe Gabriela Petkova-Campbell,2009 This book explores the origins and development of museums and heritage sites in Bulgaria 1856 2006 in relation to societal change and major historic events It seeks to determine the key factors that promoted museum building and pinpoint the key individuals who were involved Original and archival sources interviews observations and field visits have provided a rich dataset which has been analysed to reveal how systems of power politics and social control affected how museums were created and subsequently managed Furthermore the Bulgarian case is situated within a broader European context and comparisons are made with the museum institutions in different countries in order to determine any specifics and particularities of Bulgarian museum building and operation The book demonstrates how different administrations have used museums to promote their own political views of the nation s cultural identity and in particular how the strategies employed by the Communist regime continue to influence the museum sector today The major contribution of this book lies in its use of archival documents This has resulted in a different account of the formation of Bulgarian museums on some occasions contradicting accepted histories It also introduces the little known Bulgarian museology to a wider audience which is seen to be important at a point in time when Bulgaria has become part of the European Union

Museums in Postcolonial Europe Dominic Thomas, 2013-09-13 The history of European nation building and identity formation is inextricably connected with museums and the role they play in displaying the acquired spoils and glorious symbols of geopolitical power in order to mobilize public support for expansionist ventures This book examines the contemporary debate surrounding the museum in postcolonial Europe Although there is no consensus on the European colonial experience the process of decolonization in Europe has involved an examination of the museum s place and ethnic minorities and immigrants have insisted upon improved representation in the genealogies of European nation states Museological practices have been subjected to greater scrutiny in light of these political and social transformations In addition to the refurbishment and restructuring of colonial era museums new spaces have also been inaugurated to highlight the contemporary importance of museums in postcolonial Europe as well as the significance of incorporating the perspective of postcolonial European populations into these spaces This book includes contributions from leading experts in their fields and represents a comparative trans historical and transcolonial examination which contextualises and reinterprets to the legacies and experiences of European museums This book was published as a special issue of Africa and Black Diaspora An International Journal

Frederick Kiesler Shirley Haines-Cooke, 2009 The material for this book has been taken from the 2006 thesis Frederick Kiesler TM s Art of This Century in New York 1942 1947 in the Context of the Twentieth Century Art Museum The prime objective was to establish why so few people remember Art of This Century which Kiesler designed for Peggy Guggenheim in 1942 and she ruthlessly closed in 1947 A second aim was to investigate why there has been so much research carried out on the Gallery when it was acknowledged as a work of art in its own right at the time of opening Indeed in 2004 Thomas Krens the Guggenheim Foundation TM s director expressed concern that due to the lack of research it might slip into oblivion Such a statement raises questions as to why it has taken the Guggenheim Foundation over half a century to resurrect Art of This Century in the form of two exhibitions held in Frankfurt and Venice or instigate its own research The book opens with an historical account of the development of the modern art museum as well as an overview of Kiesler TM s life and multidisciplinary oeuvre His association with selected contemporary architectural theorists and architects is looked at to establish whether they had any influence on his eclectic thinking This is followed by a summary of Kiesler TM s manifesto On Correalism and Biotechnique A Definition of a New Approach to Building Design 1937 1939 The main body of the work is a detailed description of Art of This Century The notion that Kiesler TM s innovative theories and designs might be better understood in a twenty first century architectural context is finally explored This book finally restores Frederick Kiesler to his rightful place in the history of twentieth century art and architecture By a careful analysis of his sometimes fraught collaboration with the mercurial Peggy Guggenheim Haines Cooke uncovers the fascinating story of Kiesler TM s ground breaking new vision for the display of abstract art rendered all the more poignant by its significant yet largely subliminal influence on much of the best in recent museum and gallery architecture Dr Jonathan Hale University of Nottingham The Journal of Museum Education ,2006 Art and Artifacts 2e James Putnam,2009-10-27 The increasing trend towards collaborations between practising artists and museum curators has in some cases involved the rehanging of existing collections or redesigning of gallery spaces In this way the probing instinct of the creative mind counterbalances the sense of permanence and order associated with the museum in a constructive dialogue involving elements of the past present and future BOOK JACKET Curating Pop Sarah Baker,Lauren Istvandy,Raphaël Nowak,2019-06-27 Curating Pop speaks to the rapidly growing interest in the study of popular music exhibitions which has occurred alongside the increasing number of popular music museums in operation across the world Focusing on curatorial practices and processes this book draws on interviews with museum workers and curators from twenty museums globally including the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville the Experience Music Project in Seattle and the PopMuseum in Prague Through a consideration of the subjective experiences of curators involved in the exhibition of popular music in museums in a range of geographic locations Curating Pop compares institutional practices internationally illustrating the ways in which popular music history is presented to visitors in a wider sense Material Culture in America Helen Sheumaker,2008 You can tell a lot about people by looking at their stuff the things they make process and value That is the idea that drives the field of material culture in which scholars explore the meaning of objects of a given society This book is the first encyclopedia to look at the study of material culture and what it reveals about life in the United States Jacket Critical Practice Janet Marstine,2017-02-10 Critical Practice is an ambitious work that blurs the boundaries between art history museum studies political science and applied ethics Marstine demonstrates how convergences between institutional critique and socially engaged practice as represented by the term critical practice can create conditions for organisational change particularly facilitating increased public agency and shared authority The book analyses a range of museum interventions exploring such subjects as the ethical stewardship of collections hybridity as a methodological approach to social justice and alternative forms of democracy Discussing critical practice within the framework of peace and reconciliation studies Marstine shows how artists interventions can redress exclusions inequalities and relational frictions between museums and their publics Elucidating the museological and ethical implications of institutional critique and socially engaged practice Marstine has provided a timely and thoughtful resource for museum studies scholars artists museum professionals art historians and graduate students worldwide who are interested in mapping and unpacking the intricate relationships among artists museums and communities     Framing Russian Art Oleg Ior'evich Tarasov, 2010 In Framing Russian Art Oleg Tarasov investigates the role of the frame both literally and conceptually both in the organization of the artistic space of a work of art and in the very perception of a visual image an icon a building a painting an etching or photograph Part One is dedicated to exploring the frame of the Russian icon and related arts folding images and prints from the Middle Ages to the late nineteenth century including analyses of Grigoriy Shumayev's vast and extraordinary Baroque masterpiece which he called the iconostasis of the life giving Cross and the sumptuous blending of medievalism and the late Romanticism in the Church Not Made by Hands at Savva Momontov's estate of Abramtsevo outside Moscow Part Two examines the successive roles of the frame in Baroque imperial portraiture the dynastic grandiloquence of the nineteenth century the impact of Western ideas and new technology photography in particular on the celebrated battle painter Vasilii Vereshchagin and finally the impact of the vanishing frame in abstract art and Modernism Book Jacket     Graduate Programs in the Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences 2008 Peterson's Guides Staff, Peterson's, 2007-11 The six volumes of Peterson's Annual Guides to Graduate Study the only annually updated reference work of its kind provide wide ranging information on the graduate and professional programs offered by accredited colleges and universities in the United States and U S territories and those in Canada Mexico Europe and Africa that are accredited by U S accrediting bodies Books 2 through 6 are divided into sections that contain one or more directories devoted to individual programs in a particular field Book 2 contains more than 12 500 programs of study in 152 disciplines of the humanities arts and social sciences
