For Free Press and Equal Rights Richard H. Abbott,2004 For Free Press and Equal Rights is an exhaustive study of the newspapers published in the Reconstruction South that had ties to the pro Union northern based Republican party Until now no book has been devoted entirely to this subject Richard H Abbott s research draws on his readings from some 430 southern Republican papers This figure accounts for literally hundreds more papers than are cited in the handful of previously published related studies none of which makes more than passing reference to any of the topics that Abbott covers in detail Abbott first traces the origins of the southern Republican press from its lone stronghold in antebellum northwest Virginia to its wartime expansion in the wake of the Union Army s occupation of such far flung places as Key West Florida and Port Royal South Carolina Abbott then discusses the challenges of establishing and sustaining a Republican press where the most likely readership freed slaves was usually illiterate and too poor to subscribe much less to contribute advertising revenue Looking at the different ways white and black editors faced common problems from ostracism and libel to vandalism and physical assault Abbott also discusses the mixed blessings of patronage by which Republican officials steered printing business to their party organs Abbott s state by state year by year analyses look at the fluctuating number of southern Republican papers in terms of their distribution in rural urban and anti pro Republican areas For Free Press and Equal Rights reveals a wealth of information about papers ranging from the Visitor of Hot Springs Arkansas which lasted less than a year to the Union Flag of Jonesborough Tennessee which ran from 1865 to 1873 It makes a number of new and important points about political patronage and the publishing process race and print culture Republican ideology and rhetoric and our first amendment rights
