A Commentary on the Pastoral Epistles J. N. D. Kelly, 1981. A commentary on the pastoral epistles by J. N. D. Kelly, 1981. Timothy, Titus and Hebrews Dick France, 2001-01-01. Unlike most of the letters of Paul, 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus are written not to church communities but to individuals caught up in the midst of challenging situations. Hebrews, on the other hand, is a quite distinctive letter with its compelling presentation of how in the coming of Jesus, God has given us something better than all that had gone before in the Old Testament period. All four letters are written, however, to help churches to develop the distinctive lifestyle of Jesus' followers in an often hostile world. Theological questions are interwoven with pastoral concerns as the writer seeks to guide the growing congregations to maturity.

1 and 2 Timothy, Titus Walter L. Liefeld, 2011-03-01. The NIV Application Commentary helps you communicate and apply biblical text effectively in today's context. To bring the ancient messages of the Bible into today's world, each passage is treated in three sections: Original Meaning, Concise exegesis to help readers understand the original meaning of the biblical text in its historical, literary, and cultural context; Bridging Contexts, A bridge between the world of the Bible and the world of today built by discerning what is timeless in the timely pages of the Bible; Contemporary Significance. This section identifies comparable situations to those faced in the Bible and explores relevant application of the biblical messages. The author alerts the readers of problems they may encounter when seeking to apply the passage and helps them think through the issues involved. This unique award-winning commentary is the ideal resource for today's preachers, teachers, and serious students of the Bible, giving them the tools, ideas, and insights they need to communicate God's Word with the same powerful impact it had when it was first written.
