The Future of American Higher Education Joseph L. DeVitis, 2023-07-03 This impressive anthology presents the reader with an introduction to a gallery of public intellectuals through the critical eyes of a wide array of contributing writers from various academic fields. Both the latter and the public intellectuals themselves are responding to the state of American higher education. Importantly, most of them there are a few public intellectuals in the book who cling closer to the status quo do not separate colleges and universities from the political, economic and social currents of American society. They attack the realities of growing social inequality, the intractable presence of institutional racism and the recurrent reliance on the free market as the arbiter of value. Public intellectuals assess the impact of these social factors on the organization and practices of contemporary American higher education. They force the reader to consider serious challenges to the current arrangement of higher learning and as such they ask us to assess the efficacy of their respective perspectives. Do they present the reader with insight or idealism pathways or dead ends? This compendium provides an abundance of ideas for higher education leaders, policy makers, faculty members, trustees and governmental officials as well as social theorists and graduate students interested in higher education careers. Richard Guarasci, President Emeritus of Wagner College. Just as our society is polarized, higher education is no less divided as to its mission and purpose: whether it should be preparing students for employment or for engagement as citizens; whether it should be corporatist and profit driven or promote intellectual curiosity and independent thinking; and whether it should pursue a neoliberal agenda or promote a liberal education. Whose scholarship, culture and epistemologies should be validated? Should it be a private or a public good? Preserve tenure or erode it? What role should colleges and universities play in addressing economic inequality and systemic racism? The answers to these questions are critical for the future of our society as our universities and colleges are the nurseries of the values and philosophies that shape it. The chapters in this book review the contributions of seventeen public intellectuals who have been at the forefront of these issues and significantly contributed to these debates. Each describes the genesis of each scholar's ideas and presents and critiques his or her core insights and arguments. The seventeen public intellectuals represent a spectrum of opinion from the conservative to the progressive. At this pivotal moment when much of higher education is in economic crisis and public trust in it has been eroded, this book offers a robust entry point for considering the options and directions ahead for anyone in a leadership position. The book will also be valuable for higher education courses to stimulate debate about these critical issues and introduce readers to the seminal thinkers in the field. Public Intellectuals Presented: Stanley Aronowitz, Michael B. rub, Marc Bousquet, Patricia Hill Collins, Lori Patton Davis, William Deresiewicz, Stanley Fish, Marybeth Gasman, Henry Giroux, Sara Goldrick-Rab, Amy Gutmann, Russell Jacoby, Randall Kennedy, David Kirp, David F. Labaree, Christopher Newfield, Michael Roth.

Women and Gender in Higher Education Ann Wendle, 2021-01-14 Since the founding of the nation, higher education has helped female faculty and students assert themselves in establishing equality between men and women across the country Morris 1984 During the nineteenth century women had limited access to many sectors of American society because of their inferior status to men Such differences were visible in both political and academic arenas This discrimination reflected general societal norms of the time relegating women to the roles of mothers and homemakers Women and Gender in Higher Education provides a comprehensive review of the varying concepts that address the development of women in higher education including how women understand the world around them making meaning for themselves and their environment and acknowledging the intersectionality of their identity It also breaks new ground in the conversation about the roles of women and gender in higher education Perfect for courses such as Theoretical Frameworks of Discrimination Marginality in Relation to Gender History of Women and Gender Concepts of Gendered Behavior Colonial Model v Contemporary Discrimination Absence of Identity in Privilege Model Power and Privilege Model Redefined Foundational Framework for Oppression Theory Generally Speaking Madeline J. Smith,Kristen L. Tarantino,2019-07-29 This extensive overview first surveys the history of general education in the United States It discusses how the recommendations of stakeholder groups have shaped general education in recent decades Subsequent chapters detail best practices and findings in the assessment of student learning as it relates to the general education curriculum across institutional types The discussion then turns to the larger impact of general education on culture and society as students navigate life beyond the undergraduate experience The final chapters will provide insight into how various institutions are innovating through the general education curriculum as well as a discussion on the keys to maintaining the relevancy of this curriculum throughout the 21st century and beyond Perfect for courses such as Assessment of Student Learning Higher Education Administration Academic Issues in Higher Education Introduction to Foundations of Higher Education The Best Books for Academic Libraries: Political science, law, education ,2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers Choice ,1996 International Who's who in Education Ernest Kay,1987

The Journal of Negro Education Charles Henry Thompson,1984 The purpose of the Journal is threefold first to stimulate the collection and facilitate the dissemination of facts about the education of Black people second to present discussions involving critical appraisals of the proposals and practices relating to the education of Black people third to stimulate and sponsor investigations of issues incident to the education of Black people Academe American Association of University Professors,1996 Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Shea,Peter Sola,Ernest Kahane,1990-04-10 This is an important book because its focus is critical and its aim is to demystify the prevailing ideology of school reform The introductory essay is excellent in its elucidation of the world political economy of the 1980s and current educational reforms It sets a clear direction for the remainder of the book which is noteworthy for its organizational conceptual and written clarity Topics include education reform and work teacher education continuing education and equity In its attempt to present alternative ways of seeing and interpreting educational social phenomenon this book is one of the best to appear The text is refreshingly free of a lot of jargon thus the reader is better able to understand the complexities of educational and social critique Highly recommended for upper level undergraduate and graduate reading Choice This is the first comprehensive scholarly critique of the recent literature on school reform The essays critically analyze the three major issues that have been the focal point of reform efforts the restructuring of teacher education programs the reconceptualization of the social function of American high schools and colleges and the redefinition of the educated individual The New Servants of Power brings together the work of an emerging group of revisionist scholars in this field enlarging the scope of contemporary debate about school and educational reform The essays critically assess national educational reports books and related policy statements that set the parameters from which much of the contemporary education debate proceeds The work considers the contemporary school reform debate as a reflection of a conflict between dominant economic interest groups about the most efficient means of rebuilding labor productivity and American economic power Next the concept of work and the schools as reflected in school reform literature is addressed A section about how groups and individuals who are traditionally less well served fare under school reform follows Included are specific implications for constituents critical questions about continued inequitable distribution of resources and recommended alternative policies Finally the treatment of aims attitudes skills and disciplines embodied in specific curriculum proposals is analyzed The New Servants of Power is an excellent resource for educators and students on courses such as current issues in education school and society and sociology of education

Current Index to Journals in Education ,1987    America, History and Life ,1988 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide    El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print ,2006    Between the Self and the Public Stephan Wender,2004 In the study of American literature there persists an assumption that literary naturalism was overtaken around 1910 or so by modernism a mode of writing that represents a clear advancement in technique and subject matter This idea has been reinforced by the segregation of academic literary study into distinct periods of specialization a disciplinary cordon that helps to explain an otherwise puzzling absence of critical work that seeks to identify elements of continuity between the two literary modes My dissertation argues that naturalism and modernism ought not to be regarded as ancestor and successor upon an evolutionary timeline of development but rather as complementary strategies of representation that are co implicated in American urban fiction In the dissertation I maintain that during the fin de siecle period of accelerated industrialization and urbanization a new system of cultural selection called the promotional matrix begins to fuse and focalize public and private spheres so that individual identities are defined vis a vis the wider social system which is itself increasingly devoted to the promotion of individual identities Pace the poststructuralist critics of the last twenty years who have sought to debunk the oppositional status of naturalism it is my contention that the most vital and lasting legacy of the original generation of American naturalists can be found in their shared commitment to describing and interrogating the system of structured competition that was coming to mediate between the self and the public in the United States Indeed I argue that naturalism constitutes a usable literary counter tradition for the writers of modernism one that they freely adapted and transformed in accordance with changing literary techniques and political circumstances Throughout the dissertation I approach questions of literary form by considering how fiction might be related to such disparate discourses as urban sociology economic data cultural geography popular culture critical theory and literary biography While my analysis might be accurately characterized as materialist or historicist I have also been crucially informed by deconstruction gender studies and psychoanalysis methods that have helped me to more fully comprehend the co extensive realms of social space and representation Books in Print Supplement ,1988
