The Reading Lives of Teens Chin Ee Loh,2024-11-04 In these changing times of global flows of media and technologies and reports of declining reading enjoyment researchers policymakers and educators need to engage anew with essential issues of what counts as reading what kinds of reading matter and how to support teen reading engagement in school and out of school settings Bringing together contributions from well known and emerging adolescent literacy researchers from different disciplinary perspectives this edited collection consolidates contemporary research on teens volitional print and digital reading whether in school or out of school contexts The first part of the book offers overviews of what teens are reading followed by chapters on community support on reading and new ways of researching teen reading With chapters from North America Europe Australia Asia and the Middle East the collection will offer multifaceted and complex insights into what how and why teens read in different contexts Reflection questions at the end of each chapter encourage readers to consider how the research can be applied in their own research policy and practice contexts This book will be of interest to researchers policymakers and educators who are invested in supporting adolescent engaged reading with evidence based policies and strategies

Digital Reading of Net Generation in China Han Zhang,Jiajie Lu,2023-08-04 With the methodology of eye tracking experiments in depth interviews and large scale questionnaires across cities this book provides a panoramic vision of digital reading and social interaction among the new generations in China Growing up under the background of social transformation cultural integration and technological progress digital reading of the Chinese net generation presents complex characteristics People born in the 1980s and 90s are better educated have democratic consciousness and have strong motivations for self expression Meanwhile reading behaviours affect their content production virtual identities and socialization in the real world The immense need for digital content fuels the digital reading industries Internet literature social media articles reading apps and e reader devices have also benefited from media content and interface innovation in the market This book provides a solid scientific foundation for reading promotion and guiding strategies in the context of digital media and offers empirical evidence for policy formulation of reading promotion and spiritual civilization in the digital age The authors expand the perspective of communication studies on digital reading and analyze how the youth reads on digital devices and creates content for interest or profit The book will be a great read for students and scholars of mass communication media studies and digital publishing

Data Science Chengzhong Xu,Haiwei Pan,Chen Yu,Jianping Wang,Qilong Han,Xianhua Song,Zeguang Lu,2024-10-30 This three volume set CCIS 2213 2215 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 10th International Conference of Pioneering Computer Scientists Engineers and Educators ICPCSEE 2024 held in Macau China during September 27 30 2024 The 74 full papers and 3 short papers presented in these three volumes were carefully reviewed and selected from 249 submissions The papers are organized in the following topical sections Part I Novel methods or tools used in big data and its applications applications of data science

Part II Education research methods and materials for data science and engine data security and privacy big data mining and knowledge management Part III Infrastructure for data science social media and recommendation system multimedia data management and analysis Fiction and Interaction Jill Walker,2003 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno,Lucas Klein,Chris Song,2023-11-16 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation Beijing Review

,2009 Descriptions of physiognomies in English fiction from realism to modernism Mirjam Marits,2003-11-28 Diploma Thesis from the year 2003 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade very good University of Graz Institute for Anglistics language English abstract 1 Introduction Descriptions of physiognomies in English literature and their significance It is a fascinating phenomenon that whenever we meet another person for the first time we unconsciously and immediately judge him or her by merely looking at the person's face Although we may call ourselves the most tolerant people free of prejudices we cannot help thinking a person likeable or not right away by the first visual impression we get without ever having talked to him or her Even though we know that a correspondence of physiognomic and inner traits has never been convincingly or scientifically proved it is unquestionable that most of us are impressed and influenced by visual data we receive from our fellow human beings faces In the course of history and thus of literature people have repeatedly tried to come to terms with this phenomenon and to find explanations as well as definitions that may help to face and deal with physiognomy in everyday life Apparently it has always been and still is people's wish to read in other faces so as to facilitate contact and to know how to judge characters That this desire is not new can be seen by the fact that even Pseudo Aristotle set up very questionable highly racist and sexist rules according to which one could categorise faces and thus know what kind of character is hidden behind the surface Today nobody relies on his writings anymore which categorised people among other factors by establishing an analogy between animals and human beings According to the author those who had certain traits that were seen as resembling certain animals were considered to have the respective animal's inner traits as well as in the following examples Die Menschen mit dicken Lippen wobei die obere weiter vorsteht als die untere sind dumm siehe die Esel und Affen Die eine kleine Stirn haben sind ungebildet siehe die Schweine 1 In English literature the question of whether there is an indexical or arbitrary connection between inner and outer traits has been approached in many different ways which cannot be analysed in detail here In a large number of older texts descriptive passages containing physiognomic hints were not included which points to a certain disinterest in this field of explanations as well as in visual details in general 1 Pseudo Aristoteles 300v Chr 1999 Physiognomica bers u kommentiert von Sabine Vogt Berlin Akademie Verlag 26f 2006 Novel & Short Story Writer's Market ,2005 Right Book, Right Time Agnes Nieuwenhuizen,2007-09-01 An eclectic and voracious compilation of more than 500 reading suggestions for teenagers this reference contains a wide range of books with an international scope With recommendations for scary funny and sad books this collection offers choices to suit every mood and moment and to satisfy all kinds of readers whatever their tastes and interests The entries link many different books authors and media together and connect classics to pop culture An adventurous guide to exploring exciting genres styles topics and themes this resource inspires a love for reading 2007 Novel & Short Story Writer's Market Lauren Mosko,2006 Lists addresses and information on contacts pay rates and submission requirements and includes essays on the craft of writing Kaapse Bibliotekaris ,2011 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Library Journal ,2009 Online Access ,1996 Literature and the Web Robert Rozema,Allen Webb,2008 Read the technology book that's about the content not the computer Literature and the Web is a thoughtful nuts and bolts guide for any English teacher looking for effective tools to boost readers engagement and improve their responses to literature Internet Activities for Language Arts Mari Lu Robbins,1999
